FICTION

THE COMING OF THE TIDE

By MARGARET SHERWOOD

The events of a summer on the Maine coast are here told with all the beauty of feeling and diction that made Miss Sherwood's "Daphne" so enjoyable.

With frontispiece in tint. 12mo, $1.50.

THE ANCIENT GRUDGE

By ARTHUR STANWOOD PIER

A strong novel of present-day American life in a great manufacturing centre, following the career of two men of opposite characters from the time they were room-mates at college.

Crown 8vo, $1.50.

ROSE O' THE RIVER

By KATE DOUGLAS WIGGIN

A story full of Mrs. Wiggin's wit and characteristic humor, dealing with the same kind of village life as in "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm." Rose is a "Down East" girl and, like Rebecca, dominates over her little world. With 10 full-page illustrations in color by George Wright. 12mo, $1.25.

THE GREEN SHAY

By GEORGE S. WASSON

The story of a decadent "Down East" fishing community, told with a keen sense of humor and some delicious dialect by the author of "Cap'n Simon's Store," which, Mark Twain says, is "full of the salt of the sea." With frontispiece by the author.

12mo, $1.50.

THE WIZARD'S DAUGHTER

By MARGARET COLLIER GRAHAM

Tales of life in California, full of humor and pathos, and told with uncommon power.

12mo, $1.25.

PARADISE

By ALICE BROWN

A powerful novel with a direct human appeal, tracing the play of universal passions in a rugged New England setting.

Crown 8vo, $1.50.

MRS. PERSIS MATHER'S

sprightly comments upon the manners and customs of our social world are keen and decidedly entertaining. No end of discussion will be created by the

HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & COMPANY'S FALL PUBLICATIONS

JUVENILE

KRISTY'S SURPRISE PARTY

By OLIVE THORNE MILLER

Interesting stories, several of which recount the queer adventures of some very little girls, while others describe laughable incidents in home life, as "A Dinner that Ran Away," "A Mystery in the Kitchen," etc. Illustrated in colors. 12mo, $1.25.

THE STAR JEWELS

By ABBIE FARWELL
BROWN

Delicate fancy and humor have gone into the making of these new and original fairy tales, which make a chain of little jewels strung together for the children's pleasure. Illustrated. Square 12mo, $1.00.

AN ONLY CHILD

By ELIZA ORNE
WHITE

An absorbing story of the joys and sorrows of a little girl and her kitten, and of the provincial life in a country town. Illustrated. 12mo, $1.00.

THE RED CHIEF

By EVERETT T.
TOMLINSON

Dr. Tomlinson's new story is even more exciting than his last, for it tells of the deeds of the Mohawk Indian Chief, Brant; and of the Cherry Valley massacre, an almost forgotten chapter in the history of our country. Illustrated. Crown 8vo, $1.50.

THE GOLDEN GOOSE

By EVA MARCH TAPPAN

Six fairy tales from ancient Scandinavian sources, well told in simple, direct language suitable for little children, by the author of "Old Ballads in Prose." With many illustrations.

LONELY O'MALLEY

By ARTHUR
STRINGER

A brilliant and laughable story, strongly suggesting both "Tom Sawyer" and "The Story of a Bad Boy" in describing the exploits of a small boy, the darling of his mother and the terror of the town. Illustrated with pen and ink sketches. 12mo, $1.50.

JAPANESE

THE ROMANCE OF THE MILKY WAY

By LAFCADIO HEARN

In his last volume of essays and stories Hearn has strengthened our belief in his power to catch the very spirit of Japanese thought, and to make it comprehensible and enjoyable to a Western mind. 12mo, $1.25 net. Postage extra.

IN THE LAND OF THE GODS

By ALICE M. BACON

This charming rendering of the beliefs and superstitions of Japan, by Miss Bacon, author of "Japanese Girls and Women," etc., will help to a more sympathetic understanding of our trans-Pacific neighbors. 12mo, $1.50.

HOLIDAY

THE STORY OF NOAH'S ARK

By E. BOYD SMITH

The story of the Ark told in a series of twenty-six highly amusing and beautifully colored illustrations, supplemented with brief text by the artist-author, which, by its dry and solemn tone, only serves to increase the fun. Mr. Smith has struck a really new vein in animal books, and one that will captivate all ages of readers. Large oblong, $2.00 net. Postage extra.

BRET HARTE'S HER LETTER

Illustrated by ARTHUR I. KELLER

Mr. Keller has very successfully reproduced the pathos and irresistible humor of the "Love-Suit on Poverty Flat" in his colored illustrations, drawn expressly for this exquisite holiday edition of Bret Harte's three famous poems.

The attractive setting of nine full-page illustrations in color, over thirty full-page sketches in tint, and many head and tail pieces, make this volume one of the most artistic and pleasing holiday gift books of the season.

Large 8vo,

TWO BIRD-LOVERS IN MEXICO

By C. WILLIAM BEEBE

A delightful book of travel through Mexico, giving interesting descriptions of the scenery, and of the varieties of animal life encountered by Mr. and Mrs. Beebe while "roughing it." Profusely illustrated from photographs by the author. Large crown 8vo, $3.00 net. Postage extra.

HOLMES' ONE HOSS SHAY

Illustrated by HOWARD PYLE

Mr. Pyle has been unusually successful in giving to his colored drawings, which have been accurately reproduced, the character of special, hand-painted illustrations. The popular price of this edition will attract many a book-buyer. With 66 colored illustrations. 12mo, $1.50.

ENGLISH HOURS

By HENRY JAMES

Mr. James' impressions of English life will always appeal to the artistic side of the reading public. His English sketches are admirably suited to illustration, and Mr. Joseph Pennell's interesting drawings supplement the text most harmoniously. With 70 illustrations by Joseph Pennell. Crown 8vo, $3.00.

LIFE AND DEATH OF CARDINAL WOLSEY

By GEORGE CAVENDISH

A sumptuous edition of the first biography written in the English tongue. It is from the most authoritative text, and is very effectively illustrated with photogravures, mainly by Holbein, reproduced in sepia and red chalk tints. 1000 copies, in buckram, 4to, each, $7.50 net, postpaid.

ESSAYS

WAYS OF NATURE

By JOHN BURROUGHS

Mr. Burroughs comes to the rescue of popular natural history in this rational view of nature's methods, and answers the attacks made upon him. These essays contain many interesting, original observations, recounted with the old-time charm of their author. 16mo, $1.10 net. Postage extra.

THE PARDONER'S WALLET

By SAMUEL M. CROTHERS

A new volume of essays by the author of "The Gentle Reader." Their quiet delicacy recalls "The Autocrat," and there is just enough humor to suit the taste of to-day. 12mo, $1.25 net. Postage extra.

MISS REPPLIER

IN OUR CONVENT DAYS

By AGNES REPPLIER

The childish adventures of an eager American girl in a French-American convent-school are here told in Miss Repplier's inimitable way. 16mo, $1.10 net. Postage extra.

THE QUESTION OF OUR SPEECH

By HENRY JAMES

A volume of unusual literary interest, containing one of the most suggestive discussions of the nature of fiction. Mr. James also gives some very wholesome advice in regard to American carelessness in pronunciation and use of words. Narrow 12mo, $1.00 net. Postage extra.

AMERICAN LITERARY MASTERS

By LEON H. VINCENT

Mr. Vincent writes in an easy, graceful style of the life, character, and works of nineteen representative American authors, covering the period from 1809 to about 1851-6, and offers some suggestive criticism.

CICERO IN MAINE

By MARTHA BAKER DUNN

No American essayist combines more engagingly wit and wisdom, humor and pathos, or writes with more delightful piquancy and flavor than Mrs. Dunn. 12mo, $1.25 net. Postage extra.

DR. CROTHERS

THE ENDLESS LIFE

By SAMUEL M. CROTHERS

The author of this work is a fresh and strong thinker, and has treated the subject of immortality powerfully, reverently, and thoughtfully. 16mo, 85 cents net. Postage extra.

LETTERS FROM THE DEAD TO THE DEAD

Edited by "OLIVER LECTOR"

This learned and ingenious book consists of a series of very cleverly fabricated letters exchanged by Bacon and De Bruck, Napier, Briggs, Guy Fawkes, Shakespeare, and others. The letters imply that Bacon, so far from being the father of modern science, was chief of all mystics, and the actual author, of course, of the plays of Shakespeare, adding new interest to the Bacon-Shakespeare controversy.

HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & COMPANY'S FALL PUBLICATIONS

BIOGRAPHY—HISTORY

PART OF A MAN'S LIFE

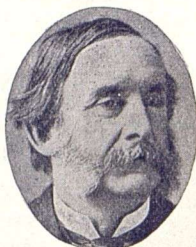

By THOMAS WENTWORTH HIGGINSON

A graceful volume of literary reminiscence and anecdote. It is not a formal autobiography, but a series of readable chapters upon some of the more important phases of Colonel Higginson's life, expressing his ripe views upon many public questions and literary subjects. With portraits and autograph facsimiles. 8vo, $2.50 net. Postage extra.

JAMES G. BLAINE

By EDWARD STANWOOD

James G. Blaine's public life covered the period of the Civil War and of Reconstruction, and his biography is in effect a condensed history of the political events of the time. This is the initial volume in the American Statesmen, Second Series. With portrait. 12mo, $1.25 net. Postage extra.

COL. HIGGINSON

CHARLES GODFREY LELAND

By ELIZABETH ROBINS PENNELL

The biography of one of the most remarkable American men of letters, a Civil War veteran, author of "Hans Breitmann's" Poems, the greatest authority after George Borrow on Gypsies and Romany life and folklore, and a man whose travels led him among the wildest Bohemians of Europe. In two volumes. With many portraits, and other illustrations. Large crown 8vo.

THE TSAR AND AUTOCRACY

By a Member of the Imperial Court

A fair, clear-cut estimate of the Tsar's mental state and character from a genuinely patriotic Russian point of view. It brings the reader so close to the throne, and gives such an unquestionable revelation of the real autocrat, that there is little doubt but that the writer must be a Russian official of high rank, if not a member of the inner Imperial Court.

A SHORT HISTORY OF ITALY

By HENRY D. SEDGWICK

A very readable history of Italy, showing the relations between the political life, and intellectual life, as expressed in the fine arts, literature, science, and music. With maps.

JAMES RUSSELL LOWELL

By FERRIS GREENSLET

A compact and readable narrative of the life of Lowell, giving the reader a lively sense of his personal quality and flavor. It contains extracts from his note-books and journals never before printed, while the two chapters of analysis of Lowell's work in poetry and prose have the advantage of contributing additional evidence in several important letters that have only recently become accessible. With portraits, and other illustrations. 12mo, $1.50 net. Postage extra.

MR. SEDGWICK

LOUISIANA

By ALBERT PHELPS

This volume shows the part which the history of Louisiana has played in the development of the nation and of our national and international policies. In American Commonwealths Series. With maps. 16mo, $1.10 net. Postage extra.

SIDNEY LANIER

By EDWARD MIMS

The first complete and adequate life of one of the finest and truest of American poets, telling, so far as possible, in Lanier's own words of his multifarious life as a student, Confederate officer, lawyer, musician, university lecturer, poet and man of letters. With portraits, and other illustrations. 12mo, $1.50 net. Postage extra.

RHODE ISLAND

By IRVING B. RICHMAN

In narrating the history of Rhode Island to the present time, Mr. Richman lays great stress on separatism, which has been a persisting element in the social, industrial and political growth of the State. In American Commonwealths Series. With maps. 16mo, $1.10 net. Postage extra.

THE ENGLAND AND HOLLAND OF THE PILGRIMS

By MORTON DEXTER

A history of the origin and development of the Pilgrim movement, which resulted in the establishment of the Plymouth colony in 1620. It describes the upspringing of Puritanism in England, its development, the conflict, and the flight of the Pilgrims and others to Holland. With illustrations and plans.

POETRY—RELIGION

THE ENGLISH WORKS OF GEORGE HERBERT

Edited by GEORGE HERBERT PALMER

It is very fitting that Herbert, in whose work the purest poetry and the most devoted piety are mingled, should have been treated with such fidelity and taste as characterize this incomparable edition.

Professor Palmer has added a worthy introduction, which, together with the notes, make this the most complete and, critically speaking, the final edition of Herbert's works. With 29 photogravure and half-tone portraits, views and facsimiles. In three volumes. Crown 8vo, $6.00 net. Carriage extra.

THE SUBCONSCIOUS

By JOSEPH JASTROW

A distinctive contribution to a phase of descriptive psychology, by the author of "Fact and Fable in Psychology." Professor Jastrow emphasizes the wide range of subconscious activities in every-day life, which include absent-mindedness, the simpler dream experiences, and the general submerged tone of much of our thinking, feeling and doing.

THE VALERIAN PERSECUTION

By PATRICK J. HEALY

An impartial study of the relations between Church and State in the third century A.D., bringing into clearer light the herculean task which confronted the first Apostles of Christianity. Crown 8vo, $1.50 net. Postage, 12 cents.*

THE CHIEF AMERICAN POETS OF THE XIXth CENTURY

By CURTIS HIDDEN PAGE

This volume contains the best work of the greater American poets—Bryant, Poe, Longfellow, Lowell, Emerson, Holmes, Whittier, Whitman and Lanier, giving from each one of them enough to represent fully, the man and his work, to serve as material for a thorough study of them. With biographical and critical notes and a full reference list. Large crown 8vo, $1.75 net; postpaid.

THE IMMANENCE OF GOD

By BORDEN P. BOWNE

An admirable presentation of the ever-living, ever-present God. Dr. Bowne's writings consist of a direct unimpeded progress of thought and have a marked literary flavor. 16mo, $1.00 net. Postage, 8 cents.

CITIES OF PAUL

By WILLIAM BURNET WRIGHT

Descriptions and studies of nine of the cities associated with the work and epistles of St. Paul, showing the result in these cities of bigotry in religion, graft in politics, and misguided wealth, and how the Apostle dealt with those vices which now threaten our own municipalities. 16mo.

SONGS OF AMERICA

By EDNA DEAN PROCTOR

Miss Proctor's verse is musical and earnest and her new collection contains much true poetry and patriotism.

POEMS OF JOHN VANCE CHENEY

No American poet has a more spontaneous lyrical gift than Mr. Cheney, a fresher vein of humor, or a cheerier philosophy of life; none has made a more original approach to nature.

THE GREAT ADVENTURE

By GEORGE CABOT LODGE

Lovers of good sonnets will find much to please them in "The Great Adventure," a sequence dealing respectively with life, with love, with death. Mr. Lodge writes with deep, though restrained feeling.

COMPLETE POETIC AND DRAMATIC WORKS OF LORD BYRON

Edited by PAUL E. MORE

Byron is the latest volume in the standard series of Cambridge Poets. The text has been scrupulously collated with the standard editions. No other single volume edition contains the results of recent Byron study. With biographical sketch, photogravure portrait, notes and complete index. Crown 8vo, $3.00.

OTHERS IN PREPARATION

The aim of this popular little series is to provide in volumes, of convenient size, reference books, covering in scope the contents of many larger enterprises—and containing in compact form a mass of information which is ordinarily found only by perusing the pages of bulky Encyclopædias and Dictionaries. The field covered will be appreciated from the list of volumes; the title is in each case sufficient indication of the contents of the book. Throughout the series the Editors' work is carefully and accurately done, giving an admirable series of books, neat and useful, excellent for quick information on almost any subject.

The volumes are 3x4½ in., daintily bound in padded imitation morocco with gilt lettering. They are printed on thin but strong paper, which takes from them any suggestion of bulkiness. There are from 150-650 pages in each book—and the

HISTORICAL STORIES

Retold from St. Nicholas. A series of five volumes for children.

The popularity and success of the "Animal Stories" series has encouraged the issue of the present set on historical subjects. The titles are: Indian Stories, Colonial Stories, Revolutionary Stories, Civil War Stories, Our Holidays. Cloth bound, about 200 pages each, $0.65 net per volume.

THE CENTURY CO., NEW YORK

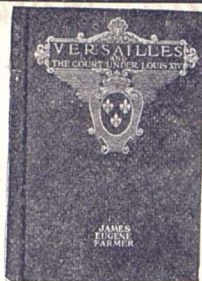

The Century Co.'s New Fall Books

VERSAILLES AND THE COURT UNDER LOUIS XIV

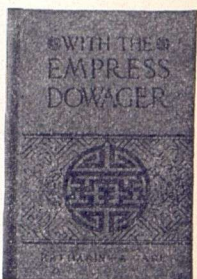

By JAMES EUGENE FARMER

Historically accurate, chronologically complete, and the only definitive record of Versailles available. The author intimately introduces us to the daily life of the Grand Monarch and his brilliant court, and describes fully the famous palace which housed them. Royal octavo, 595 pages, 70 illustrations, $3.50 net; postage 21 cents.

HOW TO STUDY PICTURES, by CHARLES H. CAFFIN

Nowhere else has the gist of art study been presented in a form so interesting, comprehensive, and suggestive. The author's plan is to contrast the work of some great artist with that of another equally great, showing a single picture painted by each, and pointing out the likeness and difference between the methods of the two painters. Octavo, 528 pages, 56 illustrations, $2.00 net; postage 19 cents.

WITH THE EMPRESS DOWAGER, by KATHARINE CARL

A book of singular interest and entertainment—the story of the daily life of the Chinese Court, its gay parties, its jealousies, and its tragedies—by one who lived there for eleven months while painting four portraits of the Empress. Royal octavo, 306 pages, 21 illustrations, $2.00 net; postage 14 cents.

THE LONG DAY, the true story of a New York Working Girl.

Nothing of its kind so genuine, dramatic and absorbingly interesting as this has ever appeared. As the truthful, intimate picture of the underpaid, overworked working-girl, this book will cause a sensation. Frontispiece, 12mo, 303 pages, $1.20 net; postage 11 cents.

WASHINGTON AND THE WEST

The diary of George Washington on a journey to the West (here printed for the first time), showing clearly his interest in the industrial development of the West, with notes, by Archer Butler Hulbert. $2.00 net; postage extra.

THREE NEW BOOKS IN THUMB-NAIL SERIES

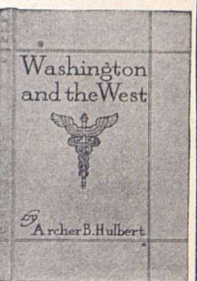

Exquisite little books in embossed leather bindings, $1.00 each: "Washington" (state papers, farewell address, inaugural, farewell to officers, etc.); "The Chimes," by Charles Dickens; "Sonnets from the Portuguese," by Elizabeth Barrett Browning, with three poems by Robert Browning, and introduction by Richard Watson Gilder.

FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

PINKEY PERKINS: JUST A BOY

By CAPTAIN HAROLD HAMMOND, U. S. A.

This book is very humorous, the first genuine boy's story that has been written in a long time. In fact, nothing more amusing has been penned since "Tom Sawyer." Illustrated. 12mo, 325 pages, $1.50.

QUEEN ZIXI OF IX

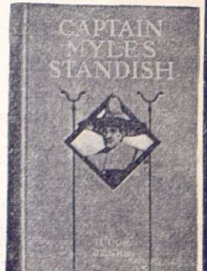

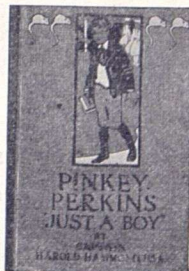

By L. FRANK BAUM, Author of "The Wizard of Oz," etc.

An old-fashioned fairy tale, full of impossible extravagancies. The handsomest "Baum Book" ever written. Illustrated in color. Square 12mo, 303 pages, $1.50.

CAPTAIN MYLES STANDISH

A new biography by TUDOR JENKS, author of "Captain John Smith," etc.

Illustrated, 12mo, 250 pages, $1.20 net; postage 12 cents.

SONGS O' CHEER

By JAMES WHITCOMB
RILEY

UNIFORM WITH

Child Rhymes
Farm Rhymes
and Love Lyrics

A collection of the favorites of Mr. Riley's poems of gladness, content and consolation.

"Songs o' Cheer" is one of the most beautiful books of poetry ever issued. If possible it excels in subject and form the charm and beauty of its predecessors in the "Deer Creek" volumes of Mr. Riley's poems named above.

A book to scatter smiles and laughter; the deadly enemy of the blues; the conqueror of sorrow.

Certain to be in big demand.

DRAWN BY WILL VAWTER FOR "SONGS O' CHEER."

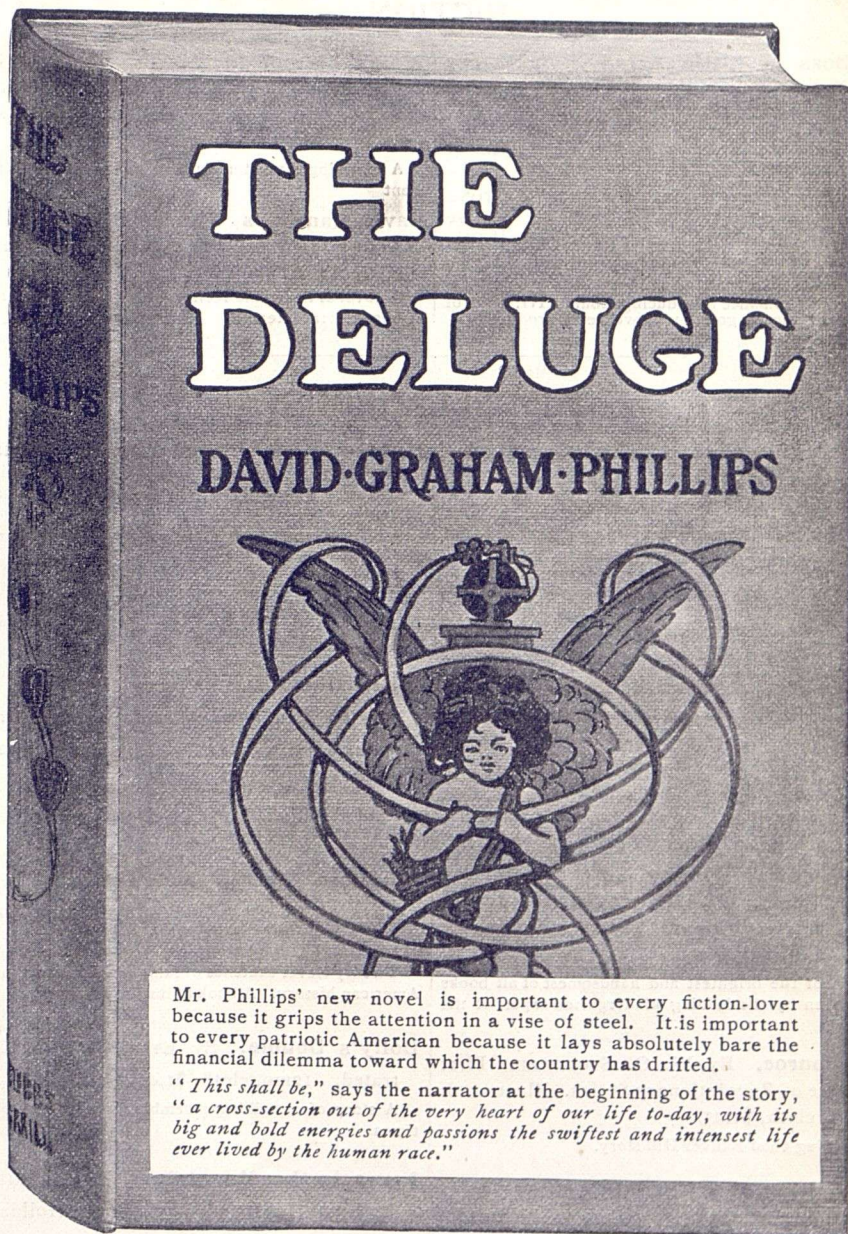

Nearly 100 Hoosier Pictures by WILL VAWTER, Part in Color

12mo, Cloth, $1.25

The Big October Novel

(Ready October 10)

Mr. Phillips' new novel is important to every fiction-lover because it grips the attention in a vise of steel. It is important to every patriotic American because it lays absolutely bare the financial dilemma toward which the country has drifted.

"This shall be," says the narrator at the beginning of the story, "a cross-section out of the very heart of our life to-day, with its big and bold energies and passions the swiftest and intensest life ever lived by the human race."

By DAVID GRAHAM PHILLIPS, author of "The Cost," "The Plum Tree," etc. Illustrated in color by George Gibbs. Cloth, 12mo, $1.50

Norman Duncan's Latest THE MOTHER

A Novelette of New York Life

"A short novel that shows what a master can do at depicting a single great human emotion. It is the story of a self-supporting young widow, naturally rather vulgar, who is beatified with the possession of a love for her little boy, a love so large that no man could have greater, for she is willing to give her life for him. To some it will be a good story and to some a masterpiece."

Handsomely Decorated Pages, Cloth, $1.25

ROBERT E. KNOWLES

St. Cuthbert's

In his first novel Mr. Knowles tells the romance of his own parish on this side the Atlantic, placing it for affectionate vision alongside of Thrums and Drumtochty. He knows how to tell a driving good story, and is a great souled man, with the eye to see the humor, the poetry and pathos of his own life work, and has the skill to portray it in a fascinating manner.

Cloth, $1.50

ADELINE M. TESKEY

The Village Artist

The Village Artist is a new force in character-making and in story-telling. She is a quaint, unselfish, home-loving type. In the ordinary, uninteresting folks around her, she sees "possibilities," and she paints what she sees. It is a fair prophecy that more than one reader will try a hand at such painting.

Illustrated, Cloth, $1.00

ISABELLA R. HESS

Saint Cecilia of the Court

"The Saint" is a little untamed red-haired girl in one of the downtown "courts" of New York. Every line of the story rings true to life, and the reader will hesitate constantly between laughter and tears, so searching is the quaint intensity of the Saint.

James M. Ludlow's New Novel SIR RAOUL

A Story of the Theft of an Empire

Dr. Ludlow's novel is a dream of inner conscience, as well as a thrilling story of outward adventure, and is a worthy companion to his successes, "The Captain of the Janizaries" and "Deborah."

The great plot of Sir Raoul and the romance of the Lady Renée, are based upon the historical facts concerning the miscarriage of that crusade of the XIIIth century which was diverted from conquering the Moslems to the capture of the Christian city of Constantinople. The love story that runs through the whole gives a picture of a woman whom one can never forget.

The Universal Elements of the Christian Religion

Charles Cuthbert Hall

12mo, cloth, net, $1.25.

Amid the flood of books on the subject of religion there appears every few years one book that dwarfs all others, one that crystallizes the thinking of the Christian world. Such is this book.

Paths to Power

F. W. Gunsaulus

2nd Edition. 12mo, cloth, net, $1.25.

"Not till now has Dr. Gunsaulus put a volume of his discourses into print. On reading them one is disposed to concede his right to the place assigned him by Prof. Wilkinson in the list with such men as Beecher, Brooks and Spurgeon."—The Outlook.

Modern India

William Eleroy Curtis

Illustrated. 8vo, cloth, net, $2.00.

Mr. Curtis has a way of finding out what others miss, and of telling his story so that it cannot be forgotten.

On the Borders of Pigmy Land

Ruth B. Fisher

Profusely illustrated with photographs. 12mo, cloth, net, $1.25.

A clever, wide awake missionary wife can write an interesting story almost any time, especially if she has lived among such a much-talked-of people as the African Pigmies, of whom really little is known.

With Tommy Tompkins in Korea

L. H. Underwood, M.D.

Illustrated. 12mo, cloth, net, $1.25.

A vivid story of life in Korea. Native life is most graphically and humorously presented in connection with the experiences of an American family.

Waxwing

(^{Author of} "A Little Green God," etc.) Mrs. Caroline Atwater Mason

The Story of a College Girl's Awakening. 12mo, decorated boards, 30 cents.

The story of a healthy-minded but thoughtless college girl whose views of life are transformed by the accidental meeting with a returned missionary.

A Mother's Year

Compiled by Helen Russ Stough

Illustrated by Sarah K. Smith

12mo, cloth, net, $1.25.

The Ammonite insult.

1 SAMUEL, 12. Samuel reasons with Israel.

besh said unto Nahash, ^bMake a covenant with us, and we will serve thee.

2 And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, On this condition will I make a covenant with you, that I may thrust out all your right eyes, and lay it for ^ca reproach upon all Israel.

3 And the elders of Jabesh said unto him, ^dGive us seven days' respite, that we may send messengers unto all the coasts of Israel: and then, if there be no man to save us, we will come out to thee.

4 ¶ Then came the messengers ^eto Gibeah of Saul, and told the tidings in the ears of the people: and ^eall the people lifted up their voices, and wept.

5 And, behold, Saul came after the herd out of the field; and Saul said, What aileth the people that they weep? And they told him the tidings of the men of Jabesh.

WEEKLY RECORD OF NEW PUBLICATIONS.

 The prices of net books published under the rules of the American Publishers' Association are preceded by this list by a double asterisk , and the word net follows the price. The prices of fiction (not net) published under the rules are preceded by a dagger †. The prices of net books not covered by the rules, whether published by members of the American Publishers' Association or not, are preceded by a single asterisk, and the word net follows the price.

The abbreviations are usually self-explanatory. c. after the date indicates that the book is copyrighted; if the copyright date differs from the imprint date, the year of copyright is added. Books of foreign origin of which the edition (annotated, illustrated, etc.) is entered as copyright, are marked c. ed.: translations, c. tr.: n. p., in place of price, indicates that the publisher makes no price, either net or retail, and quotes prices to the trade only upon application.

A colon after initial designates the most usual given name, as: A: Augustus; B: Benjamin; C: Charles; D: David; E: Edward; F: Frederic; G: George; H: Henry; I: Isaac; J: John; L: Louis; N: Nicholas; P: Peter; R: Richard; S: Samuel; T: Thomas; W: William.

Sizes are designated as follows: F. (folio: over 30 centimeters high); Q. (qto: under 30 cm.); O. (8vo: 25 cm.); v. (12mo: 20 cm.); S. (16mo: 17½ cm.); T. (24mo: 15 cm.); Tt. (32mo: 12½ cm.); Fe. 48mo: 10 cm.). Sq., obl., war., designate square, oblong, narrow books of these heights.

"This address was first given in the city of Baltimore in 1893, before the Convention of the Maryland Christian endeavor union."—Preface.

Barbour, Ralph H. Four in camp: a story of summer adventures in the New Hampshire woods. N. Y., Appleton, 1905. [S.] c. 7+249 p. il. 12°, cl., †$1.50.

The doings of about thirty boys in a camp in New Hampshire for the summer months. They are under the charge of a grown man, who puts them through, each day, an interesting programme of exercise, consisting of bathing, games, rowing, swimming, etc. Four out of the number of elder boys take the lead in everything. They are good looking, manly fellows, and have various adventures. A football game ends the story.

Byron, G. Gordon Noël, (Lord.) Complete poetical works. Cambridge ed. Bost., Houghton, Mifflin & Co., 1905. c. 21+1055 p. il. por. O. (Cambridge edition of the poets.) cl., $3; hf. cf., $5; hf. mor., $6; tree cf. or full levant, $7.50.

Callaway, Frances Bennett. Bee's flower children; il. by Caroline B. Shay. N. Y., Amer. Tract Society, [1905.] c. 13+254 p. 12°, cl., $1.50.

Capwell, Irene Stoddard. Mrs. Alderman Casey; drawings by W. Herbert Dunton. N. Y., R. F. Fenno & Co., [1905.] c. 3-175 p. nar. D. cl., 75 c.

Mrs. Casey of Chicago, but formerly of Ireland, discourses in richest brogue on neighborhood affairs, the servant question, lawn tennis, women's clubs. Mary Ann's lovers, summer hotel life, etc.

Cathcart, Wallace Hugh. Bibliography of the works of Nathaniel Hawthorne. Cleveland, O., Rowfant Club, 1905. c. 3-208 p. por. facsim., 8°, cl. privately printed. [Sold only to members.]

Pt. 1, Works; Pt. 2, Hawthorniana; Pt. 3, Important sales; Auction values.

Chambers, Rob. W. Forest-land; il. in col. by Emily Benson Knipe. N. Y., Appleton, 1905. [S.] c. 7+117 p. sq. O. bds., $1.50 net.

A successor to "Outdoor-Land," "Orchard-Land," etc. Geraldine and Peter stray into the forest one day and learn from the trees, which they find very talkative and sociable, a great deal that is interesting about the insects that frequent the forest. For quite young children.

Clark, Mrs. Susanna Rebecca Graham. Phyllis Burton: a tale of New England. Phil., Griffith & Rowland Press, [1905. S.] c. 2-489 p. il. D. cl., $1 net.

The large family of Dr. Burton and his delicate wife depended upon "Phil" for thoughtfulness, work and comfort and sympathy at all times. She was bright, helpful and wholly unselfish and in all the complications of family life was an ideal daughter and sister. All the young people are natural and happy and some very pretty love stories are interwoven with the unavoidable trials of the lives of this typical American household.

Dwight, Grace Van Rensselaer. The yellow cat and her friends; il. by Edith Dimock. N. Y., Appleton, 1905. c. 7+88 p. sq. O. bds., $1.50 net.

Nine short stories, in large type, for very little children. The illustrations are in colors.

Flagg, Ja. Montgomery. "If": a guide to bad manners; text and il. by Ja. Montgomery Flagg. N. Y., Life Publishing Co., 1905. c. 3+107 p. D. cl., 75 c.

Comic pictures and rhymes.

Hess, Isabella R. Saint Cecilia of the court. N. Y. and Chic., Revell, 1905. c. 3-212 p. il. D. cl., $1.25.

St. Cecilia is the name of a little red-headed girl with a fiery temper, who lives in a crowded court in down-town New York. One of the other dwellers in the court is Jim Belway, a cobbler, whose cheeriness, unselfishness and goodness are a blessing to the community. Cecilia's little brother, having injured his back, is taken to a hospital, and in visiting him, Cecilia meets the wise doctor and the rich patient who is fighting liquor, and thanks to them a new world is opened to her.

Hocking, Silas Kitto. The conquering will; il. by Harold Piffard. N. Y., F. Warne & Co., 1905. 4+324 p. D. cl., 75 c.

A young artist receives a commission to paint the portrait of the youngest daughter of a Kentish squire. He finds a household ruled by an utterly selfish older sister who is also Calvinistic in thought and opposed to all pleasure. The artist falls in love, the sister opposes, the artist is given up at her command. He is on the verge of suicide when rescued by a friend. After many dark hours the sister of strong will meets "the conquering will" and all clears up.

Holt, Martin. Out of bondage. N. Y., Benziger Bros., 1905. c. 188 p. O. cl., $1.25.

Story of a friendless waif who was taken from an asylum to become the drudge of a hard, embittered woman. But at her mistress' death came freedom, and her later adventures in an unknown world brought a solution of many mysteries.

Jackson, Gabrielle Emilie. Little Miss Cricket. N. Y., Appleton, 1905. [S.] c. '05. 249 p. D. cl., †$1.25.

A pretty little girl and her mother almost lose their lives in a steamboat accident on the Massachusetts coast. The mother is carried out to sea on some wreckage, rescued by a steamer and carried on to England and placed in a sanitarium, the shock having affected her memory, so she is unable to tell who she is. The little girl is found by a hard, gaunt New England woman, who takes her to her home and makes a drudge of her. The child finds companionship in the birds and dumb animals, and attracts the love and attention of all who see her. Finally she is by accident restored to her mother, who returns to Boston in good health.

Jordan, Kate. Time the comedian. N. Y., Appleton, 1905. [S.] c. 4+333 p. D. cl., †$1.50.

A shallow, amusement loving woman finds herself stranded in a small manufacturing town of New York with her husband and ten year old daughter. She is so discontented that her husband, by great sacrifices, makes it possible to let her go to New York City for three months. Here she becomes interested in her husband's friend, this leads to the husband's suicide, the woman's life in Paris, the daughter's education as an artist and many more events that typify the superficial, unnatural social life of women of to-day.

Leavitt, Emily Wilder. Palmer groups: John Melvin of Charlestown and Concord, Mass., and his descendants; gathered and arranged for Mr. Lowell Mason Palmer, of New York. N. Y., L. M. Palmer, 1901-1905. 5-450 p. 8°, cl. privately printed.

Livius Patavinus, Titus. Selections from Livy; ed. by Harry Edwin Burton. Text ed. N. Y., Amer. Book Co., [1905. S13.] c. 165 p. D. (Morris and Morgan's Latin ser.) pap., 35 c.

McCutcheon, G. Barr. Nedra; il. by Harrison Fisher. N. Y., Dodd, Mead & Co., 1905. [S.] c. 5-343 p. D. cl., $1.50 net.

Two young Chicago millionaires dreading the festivities planned for their marriage within six weeks, agree to elope. They sail for Manila as brother and sister under an assumed name and suffer shipwreck. The man and a woman fellow passenger reach Nedra, a fertile island; the girl and a fellow passenger meet other adventures. Much plot brings about reunions, but hearts have changed and the couples finally wedded are not those at first intended.

McKibbin, Julia Baldwin. Miriam. Cin., Jennings & Graham, 1905. c. 331 p. D. cl., $1.25.

Story of the South before and during the war, centering in the life of a beautiful young girl who is supposed to be part negro. But the mystery surrounding her birth and the long absence from home of her master's only daughter are cleared up happily. Part of the action of the story takes place abroad.

Miles, Alfred H., ed. Fifty-two stories for girls. N. Y., Appleton, 1905. [S.] 4-458 p. il. D. cl., †$1.50.

Fifty-two stories by the best English writers. Among the authors are Evelyn Everett-Green, Sarah Doubney, Nellie Holderness, Lucy Hardy and others.

Our first Old home day at Salem, Maine, August seventeenth, 1904. Bost., Heath, 1905. 18+227 p. il. 8°, cl., $1.

Painter, Franklin Verzelius Newton, D.D., comp. Great pedagogical essays, Plato to Spencer. N. Y., Amer. Book Co., 1905. c. 426 p. D. cl., $1.25.

Intended to introduce the student to the principal documents of educational history. Brief biographical sketches are given of all the great educational reformers with selections from their works. There are twenty-six in all.

Phillips, D. Graham. The social secretary; il. by Clarence F. Underwood; decorations by Ralph Fletcher Seymour. Indianapolis, Ind., Bobbs-Merrill Co., [1905. O.] c. 4+197 p. D. cl., †$1.50.

A young Washington girl of good family, needing to earn a living, becomes secretary of a senator's wife and manages her social life for her. The employer is a good woman of much humor who stays natural and attracts her surroundings. Her husband and son are more difficult to manage on the social stage, but the heroine is competent and the details of her dilemmas made some unexpected reading.

Stevenson, Rob. L. Complete poems: A child's garden of verses; Underwoods; Ballads; with prefaces by Mrs. Stevenson. Biographical ed. N. Y., Scribner, 1905. c. '95, '96, '05. 13+318 p. S. cl., $1; limp leath., $1.25 net.

Thucydides. Thucydides, bks. 2 and 3; ed. by W. A. Lamberton. Text ed. N. Y., Amer. Book Co., 1905. [S13.] c. 167 p. D. (Greek ser. for colleges and schools.) pap., 40 c.

Train, Arthur. McAllister and his double. N. Y., Scribner, 1905. [S.] c. 5+341 p. il. D. cl., †$1.50.

A rich New York club man has as his double in physical appearance a man who, after being dismissed from his service for dishonesty, has spent three years systematically as a thief. Circumstantial evidence several times brings suspicion and arrest upon McAllister. The methods of New York police stations, hospitals and prisons are realistically described.

Turpin, Edna Henry Lee. The rose primer. N. Y., Amer. Book Co., [1905. S15.] c. 128 p. il. D. cl., 30 c.

Wagner, C. Justice. N. Y., McClure, Phillips & Co., 1905. [S.] c. 10+227 p. S. cl., $1 net.

The author of "The simple life" here points out that it is not only necessary to live the simple life, but also to live the upright life, and that we must consider justice not only in regard to our fellow man but also in regard to ourselves, our thoughts and acts. He believes that true Christianity is a power for justice.

Wells, Carolyn. Patty in the city. N. Y., Dodd, Mead & Co., 1905. [S.] c. 9+274 p. il. D. cl., †$1.25.

Patty Fairfield leaves her home in Vernondale, New Jersey, in the beginning of the story, and comes with her father and Grandpa Elliott to New York City for the winter. Her father desires that she shall go to school another year, and also take up music. Mr. Fairfield rents a fine apartment facing Central Park and Patty's school days begin again. The story relates her experiences at a fashionable school, and describes her schoolmates, and also pictures her many happy Saturday afternoons at the circus, theatre, etc.

Wilde, Oscar. Intentions; The decay of lying; Pen, pencil and poison; The critic as artist; The truth of masks. N. Y., Brentano's, 1905. c. 19+263 p. por. D. cl., *$1.50 net.

INDEX TO FALL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

In this list publishers' announcements are indexed by author, title or subject and series. Titles already recorded in THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY have been generally excluded.

Where binding is not stated the books are generally understood to be in cloth binding; "bds.," particularly in the department of Juvenile fiction, generally means illuminated or fancy board covers. Fuller information of the books announced will be found in the publishers' advertising pages, index to which is given on page 685.

The Publishers' Weekly.

FOUNDED BY F. LEYPOLDT.

SEPTEMBER 30, 1905.

The editor does not hold himself responsible for the views expressed in contributed articles or communications.

All matter for advertising pages should reach this office not later than Wednesday noon, to insure insertion in the same week's issue.

Publishers are requested to furnish title page proofs and advance information of books forthcoming, both for entry in the lists and for descriptive mention. An early copy of each book published should be forwarded, as it is of the utmost importance that the entries of books be made as promptly and as perfectly as possible. In many cases booksellers depend on the PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY solely for their information. The Record of New Publications of the PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY is the material of the "American Catalogue" and so forms the basis of trade bibliography in the United States.

"I hold every man a debtor to his profession, from the which, as men do of course seek to receive countenance and profit, so ought they of duty to endeavor themselves by way of amends to be a help and an ornament thereunto."—LORD BACON.

THE FALL OUTLOOK.

It seems to be the opinion of the men whose business makes them close students of financial and economic conditions that the outlook for a prosperous fall and winter was never brighter than this year. In every direction there has been greater activity this year than ever before, and the harvest for 1905 promises to be a record breaker—all of which means firm prices and a continuance of good times.

The season just ending has not been quite so profitable to the trade in the larger cities of the Eastern States as those of the past three years, owing to the fact that the intense heat and the continued rainy weather drove their inhabitants out of town earlier, and kept them away longer, than ever before. In the West and South the conditions were slightly more favorable, and in time the balance will no doubt be restored.

With these facts in mind the publishing trade has again made ample provision for the fall. We might say that the announcements of books thus far received are almost monumental, the individual titles reaching fairly two thousand. While the trade press and the literary journals will reap a goodly harvest in bringing this multitude of books to the attention of their constituents we frankly sympathize with the retail book-trade, which must find an outlet for all this printed matter. Fortunately, as we have pointed out before, many of the books announced will, for one reason or another, be laid over for another season; but there will be enough left in all conscience to keep the bookseller wide awake all the time during the next three months.

An investment that grows more and more safe year by year is new editions of standard literature. The editing and the manufacturing of the books that may find a market throughout the world is every year trusted to more experienced and expert heads and hands, and this year the publishers have provided unusually beautiful settings for many of the works of true literature, which will make them profitable stock for the holiday trade.

During the year war, rumors of possible wars and the details of peace treaties have taught the people throughout the land how uncertain is their knowledge of the ever-changing geography, history and political problems that are making future history, and the works announced in this department, therefore, will supply a distinct want. The books announced on Russia and the Far East, and those on the interests of all the civilized world in the present causes of possible future wars, are a literature in themselves and many of them should prove good sellers.

Education, economics and the practical sciences and arts are more intelligently studied year by year, and the newest the experts are saying on these subjects must be bought by practical workers, always driven by ever fiercer competition in their fields of work.

When it comes to new works of pure literature and works of reference the bookseller's task of selection for his locality becomes more difficult. A knowledge of the interests of his neighbors and of their tastes and means becomes a necessity when buying books in this field, and the keynote of success in making this class of literature find a market rests mainly in personality on both sides.

In numbers fiction keeps its steady lead. All the well-known authors have a new story, but there are also many unknown names attached to curiosity-provoking titles. In choosing novels of unknown authors for his shelves the publisher's name, as a rule, is the safest touchstone of possibilities of good investment.

To market the output of the fall's publishing season means hard work for all concerned, but the material provided for this fall season seems of excellent quality and full of hopeful possibilities.

HOW WHYTE INCREASED HIS BUSINESS.

JOHN C. KIRKWOOD recently contributed to the Toronto Bookseller and Stationer the following sketch showing how one enterprising bookseller increased his business:

Young Whyte believed in having a first-class store—that meant a first-class stock. He sold books, stationery, sporting and fancy goods. He displayed these to the best advantage, was thoroughly attentive to his customers, and was always on the alert for new things that would sell in his town. People said of him: "Whyte is a hustler!"

But Whyte had ambitions. He was not content with his prosperity. He dreamed bigger things. To be just an ordinary, everyday bookseller and stationer, even though he was doing nicely, was not enough for him. For one thing, he wanted to do a bigger business in a bigger way. For another, he was young, and youth, we all know, acknowledges no lord, no limitations, no impossible mountains. This thing of waiting for people to come to him fretted him. He wanted to compel business. He argued that people had the money to spend, were spending it, were willing to spend. All that was wanted was the right temptation. So his great concern was how to divert the expenditures of the public in his direction.

There was his booktrade, for example. It was an indifferent source of revenue; the turnover was comparatively small, and while the reading habit of his community was pronounced yet people didn't buy much—they depended upon the newspapers, magazines and the public library for their literature. All this didn't make much money for Whyte. He believed that people ought to have books, to own books, and that he ought to sell them. How could he develop a book trade that would be steady and profitable? This was a question that could not be answered off-hand; but one thing Whyte did, he wrote to several publishers and jobbers and said: "I want to put on sale in May a line of miscellaneous books, which I can retail at 25 cents. What can you furnish for this purpose?" The result was that Whyte was able to offer on a given date about 500 books of all sorts—juvenile, religious, art, fiction, poetry. These books sold originally for from 50 cents to $1.50 retail, and were first-class value at his advertised price—25 cents. They were displayed in his window for a week, from Monday to Friday, with a big card, stating:

ON SALE

SATURDAY

AT 8 O'CLOCK

AT

25c

Come early

He also advertised the sale in the local paper, giving a few titles, and emphasizing the unusual chance afforded to add to one's library, or to provide good summer reading. He suggested, too, that among the books were many suitable for birthday gifts, and hinted that it might be a good thing for some to anticipate the needs of next Christmas.

The sale was successful. His 500 books had cost him 12½ cents each, or $62.50. He had sold by noon 312 books, which at 25 cents amounted to $78. Thus he had not only recovered his outlay of $62.50, but had made a profit by 12 o'clock of $15.50, and had 188 books to the good. By night there were only 73 books left, so that his day's book sale figured out after this manner.

|-------------------------------|----------|
| Sold: | |
| 427 books at 25 cents..... | $106.75 |
| Bought: | |
| 500 books at 12½ cents..... | 62.50 |
| <hr/> | |
| 75 books on hand. Profit..... | $44.25 |

In June another sale was held, and the 73 odd books were mixed in with the fresh lot. The sale was not so brisk as the former one, but was very profitable notwithstanding. Then a week later all the unsold books were offered at 10 cents per volume, and were grabbed up in short order.

Of course, Whyte's ordinary book trade suffered because of these bargain sales, but when everything was added up the sales in the book department of his business had been handsomely increased, and the profits had been highly satisfactory.

Whyte learned who were the bookbuyers of his community through these sales, and made a note of their names and addresses for future use. It surprised him to find out the host of people ready to buy bargain books. He determined to make good use of his new-found knowledge for future bookselling, and the subsequent history of his book trade goes to show that he succeeded beyond his hopes.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF STATIONERS.

THE following notice, dated September 25, is commended to all who intend to be present at the convention of the National Association of Stationers and Manufacturers:

If you are intending to attend the National Convention in St. Louis, October 9 to 12, and have not yet sent your acceptance to W. J. Kennedy, Chairman National Executive Committee, 312 North Broadway, St. Louis, please give the matter immediate attention, as it is absolutely necessary that Committee know at the earliest possible moment for how many they are expected to provide. The responses to date indicate a very large attendance and a successful convention.

Requests for hotel accommodations should be made to Geo. M. Spalding, Chairman Hotel Committee, 320 Olive St., St. Louis, at the same time as acceptance is made to Mr. Kennedy.

Arrangements have been perfected with the various passenger associations for a rate of one fare and one-third for the round trip to St. Louis and return from points east of the Rocky Mountains. Mr. Kennedy will mail upon request a circular fully explaining how these tickets may be obtained.

This needs immediate attention.

CHARLES A. STEVENS, Secretary.

The trade from New York will leave Grand Central Station, by the N. Y. C. and H. R. R. R., on October 7, at 2.04 P.M. Application for space in special car must be made at once to G. W. Higgins, 149 Broadway, New York. The fare for round trip, with stop-over privilege at Niagara Falls for ten days, is $32.10.

EXTRA DUTY ON CANADIAN PULP ABOLISHED.

JAMES B. REYNOLDS, Assistant Secretary of the United States Treasury, has advised Collector Stranahan that the United States has concluded to drop its contention that an additional or countervailing duty should be levied on wood pulp, the product of pulp wood cut from crown and private lands in the Province of Quebec.

The case is of considerable interest to manufacturers of wood pulp and paper, and has been in litigation for several years, the American Government insisting that it had the right to collect a countervailing duty on all wood pulp irrespective of whether the product came from wood cut on Crown or private lands. This contention was recently declared illegal by the United States Circuit Court for the Northern District of New York. The court affirmed an earlier decision of the Board of Appraisers, and held that the United States can only exact a countervailing duty on wood pulp produced from wood cut from Crown lands.

The Treasury Department has maintained that Canada pays a bounty on all wood pulp sent to this country, and that the merchandise thereby became liable to the extra duty on importation into the United States. While the test case has been under consideration many cases have arisen and been placed on the suspended files of the Board of Appraisers pending the outcome of the court proceedings. These will now be decided and large refunds made to importers.

OBITUARY NOTES.

E. A. SHEPLER, manager of the Western News Company, died in Chicago, on September 24, aged forty-six. Mr. Shepler, though a Pennsylvanian by birth, was raised in the Western News Company, where his industry, efficiency and enterprise soon attracted attention. In 1884 he was appointed manager of the Colorado News Company, and, seven years later, upon the retirement of John R. Walsh, he was called again to Chicago to take charge of the establishment in which he first made his mark. He was elected a director of the American News Company this year, and great hopes were entertained of his future.

NOTES ON AUTHORS.

HALL CAINE, the novelist, who arrived here on September 23, is reported to have informed a Times interviewer that he means to confer with his publishers, the Appletons, bringing before them a new system of book distribution. This he is certain will revolutionize the publication business here. He said that he could not discuss this until after the meeting with publishers. He expressed himself, however, confident of its success.

MISS EDITH ALLONBY, a Lancaster school teacher, recently committed suicide at Cartmel, Eng., because, it is supposed, a novel of hers was returned by the publishers with a request either to modify or omit altogether matter which in a letter written before her lamentable death she describes as either "truth or page upon page of blasphemy." Miss Allonby wrote and published anonymously two stories, "Marigold" and "The Jewel Sowers," which were highly praised. Her rejected novel, "The Fulfilment," is to be published by her family after it has been carefully edited.

JOURNALISTIC NOTES.

The Fortnightly Review for September, (Leonard Scott Publication Company,) contains a long criticism by Dr. J. Beattie Crozier of "A Modern Utopia," under the title "Mr. Wells as a Sociologist;" a criticism of "The Letters of Ernest Renan," by Edward Wright; and an essay on "Christopher Marlowe," by W. L. Courtney.

A LEGAL attorney on September 22 advertised in the New York daily papers that he would "prosecute to the fullest extent of the law any person or persons buying, selling, offering for sale or reading" the October issue of Everybody's Magazine, in which Thomas W. Lawson "bitterly and brutally attacks one of [Mr. Smith's] clients" in an "attempt to expose financial blackmail." The warning seems to have had no other effect than to increase the sale of the magazine on the newsstands; nor have we, up to the time of going to press, heard of any wholesale arrests of readers of the magazine.

The Reader for October contains a variety of interesting reading matter, among which the following appeal directly to literary people: "What London Offers to American Writers," by James L. Ford, who takes a less favorable view of the subject than that taken by most of his contemporaries; "The Writing of History, with special reference to some recent American histories," by H. Addington Bruce; "Leading Characteristics of American Literature," by Will D. Howe; a poem on John Hay, by Florence Earle Coates; a sonnet on "A Book-Buyer," by Richard Kirk; and a number of notes on the leading writers and dramatists of to-day in the department of "Our Own Times." The magazine is ably edited and takes a place in the front rank of journalistic literature.

BIBLIOGRAPHIC NOTES.

DODD, MEAD & Co. have just ready the third volume of "Auction Prices of Books," by Luther S. Livingston. The volume of 580 pages covers the subject from Lapham to Richards, treating the matter with the same precision and scholarship that distinguished the work of the preceding volumes. As the work grows its interest—not to mention its usefulness and value—becomes apparent to all who even scan the volume now ready. Auction prices, while not always conclusive, certainly afford good reading to those who are curious enough to watch the fluctuations of the market. Those who have this curiosity will be amply paid by the perusal of this particular volume. As we pointed out in our notice of the first volume, if consulted for an impression of book values, always with a degree of caution and personal judgment, the work cannot fail to be of immeasurable service to the bookseller, librarian and book collector. Another volume will complete the work.

BUSINESS NOTES.

FORT WORTH, TEX.—H. N. Connor, of H. N. Connor & Co., booksellers, died a week ago.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Fine Books Publishing Company has been incorporated, with a capital stock of $3000.

OMAHA, NEB.—The Omaha Typewriting Exchange has purchased the bookstore of Henry Kieser, at 1607 Farnam Street.

SAN PEDRO, CAL.—M. Levy is about to open a department store here, and will carry a line of stationery, books, etc.

WAYNE, NEB.—M. S. Davies has sold his bookstore to Jones & Felver.

LITERARY AND TRADE NOTES.

THE PHOTOCHROM COMPANY, Ltd., 35 Hoosier Lane, Snow Hill, London, have brought out a "Multiple View Card," patented here and abroad. The post card holds its subject in a frame the picture of which may be pulled down, when a number of smaller views of whatever place the larger card represents are displayed.

THOMAS WHITTAKER is about to publish a volume entitled "One Thousand and One Modern Anecdotes," by Alfred H. Miles, author of "One Thousand and One Anecdotes." Like its predecessor, the forthcoming volume will consist largely of humorous and pointed stories, useful as illustrations for all classes of platform speakers.

L. C. PAGE & Co. will publish shortly "The Bible Beautiful," by Estelle M. Hurl, author of "The Madonna in Art," etc. Each chapter has an especially drawn initial and tail piece—charming bits of detail which harmonize perfectly with the spirit of the book. The cover design is Persian in effect, with a border in rich colors stamped on a delicate background and with the lettering in gold.

HURST & COMPANY, New York, call the attention of the trade to their immense new list of popular publications at popular prices. To every one of their many lines new titles have been added, and every line has been improved in some particular. It would be impossible to describe these in detail, hence we advise the trade to secure a copy of their fall catalogue, or, if possible, inspect the line personally.

HARRISON HALE SCHAFF, of John W. Luce & Co., Boston, is in London making arrangements for a London branch of this house. Some of the books from this company in its brief history have been received with exceptional favor on the other side, notably "The Foolish Dictionary," by Gideon Wurdz, and "Epigrams and Aphorisms," by Oscar Wilde. While in Paris Mr. Schaff secured for John W. Luce & Co. a line of children's books from a well-known Parisian publisher for reproduction in this country.

THE SAALFIELD PUBLISHING Co., Akron, O., announce a gift book entitled "Sweeter Still Than This," by Adah Louise Sutton, made up of love poems, illustrated in colors by Carl B. Williams; also, "Palmistry," a little handbook by Mrs. Symes, containing complete instructions how to tell the disposition, peculiar traits of character, etc., from the lines in the palm and the general shape of the hand. They have also in preparation "Immortality," the poem Joseph Jefferson wrote not long before his death, with decorative illustrations by H. H. Bennett.

DOUBLEDAY, PAGE & Co. have decided to bring out Opie Read's book, "Old Lim Jucklin," on October 19, instead of holding it for the spring, as heretofore announced. Old Lim is a cross between David Harum and Old Gorgon Graham. He abounds in original anecdotes and shrewd and homely observations. There are remarks and epigrams on politics, gambling, horse racing, women reformers, first love, rebels, Yankees, cock fights, etc. They will publish shortly "The International Cook Book," by Alexander Philippi, who was for many years chef at Delmonico's; and the fifth part of "The Dog Book," by James Watson, which will be devoted to collies, English sheep dogs and bulldogs.

FOX, DUFFIELD & COMPANY's calendars for 1906 include "The Wagner Calendar," designs in two colors, illustrative of the Wagnerian operas, and showing the motif of each, by Marion C. Bridgman; "The Canterbury Calendar," pictures in color, by Walter Appleton Clark; "The Toyland Calendar," an echo of "Babes in Toyland," by Ethel Franklin Betts; "The Poets' Calendar," selections from the English poets, set in decorative designs by Harry Smith; "A Girl's Calendar," in color-tint, by Thomas Mitchell Peirce; "The St. Francis Calendar," selections from the writings of St. Francis, set up in mediæval designs, by Marion C. Bridgman; "The Omar Calendar," a selection of the Rubáiyát, set in designs of a Persian character by Austin Smith.

THE FUNK & WAGNALLS COMPANY will publish shortly "The Preparation of Manuscripts for the Printer," by Frank H. Vizetelly, associate editor of the Standard Dictionary. Besides giving directions to authors on how to prepare copy and correct proofs, Mr. Vizetelly's work points out how authors can effectively reduce the cost of corrections in type and tells them when, where and how to make them. Mr. Vizetelly comes from a family of printers and publishers who migrated from Venice to England in the days of "Good Queen Bess," and was himself a printer, serving his time in his father's establishment, coming to New York only when the business was forced into liquidation through prosecutions which led to the suppression of Zola's works in English.

HARPER & BROTHERS have just brought out a new novel by W. N. Harben, the author of "Abner Daniel," etc., entitled "Pole Baker," in which the tactful old meddler, one of the characters of "Abner Daniel" and "The Georgians," plays the principal part; "The Line of Love," by James Branch Cabell, a young Southern writer who has recently come into considerable prominence, the theme of which is love and romance set amid picturesque scenes of France and England in the Middle Ages; "With Flashlight and Rifle," a translation of "Mit Blitzlicht und Büchse," by C. G. Schilling, who with upwards of one hundred assistants spent eighteen months in tropical Africa, accumulating the material for his volume, the illustrations being exact reproductions of the original photographs; also, Mark Twain's new volume, "Editorial Wild Oats."

DODD, MEAD & Co. have brought out this week a book of travel which will doubtless attract considerable attention, entitled "The Silken East, a record of life and travel in Burma," by V. C. Scott O'Connor, controller of Assam. The volume sums up the results of the author's observations during a great many years of active service there. The book is at the same time scientific and popular. It is both an exhaustive and authoritative work on the natural features of the country and the condition of the people, and also by reason of its excellent description and lively narrative, a book of interest to the general reader. The book is fully illustrated. They have also just ready a juvenile story by Barbara Yechton, author of "A Lovable Crank" and "We Ten," entitled "Some Adventures of Jack and Jill," illustrated in colors.

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS have just brought out a volume on "The Principles of the Administrative Law of the United States," by Professor Frank J. Goodman, of Columbia University, who sets forth the principles of law, as found in the Constitution, the statutes of the Legislature, and the decisions of the courts which govern the organizations and actions of authorities having the duty of executing the law, and provide remedies for the individual when such officers have violated his rights; also, a new story for boys by Herbert Strang, entitled "The Adventures of Harry Rochester, a tale of the days of Marlborough and Eugene." They will publish shortly the first volume of "The Life of Goethe," by the late Albert Bielschowsky, translated by William Cooper, which covers the period from the poet's birth to his return from Italy—1749 to 1788.

LITTLE, BROWN & Co. have published this week "Lynette and the Congressman," an engaging love story, with its scene laid in Washington, by Mary Farley Sanborn, author of "Sweet and Twenty," etc.; "The Indian Dispossessed," an account of the Government's dealings with the Reservation Indians, by Seth K. Humphrey; "The Boy Captive in Canada," another Colonial story for young people, by Mary P. Wells Smith, author of The Young Puritans Series, etc.; "Boys Who Became Famous," consisting of stories of the childhood of poets, artists and musicians, by Harriet Pearl Skinner; "With Spurs of Gold," entertaining and instructive stories of famous knights, by Frances N. Greene and Dolly Williams Kirk; and "The Reform of Shaun," two sympathetic dog stories, by Allen French, author of "The Story of Rolf and the Viking's Bow," etc. On October 2 they will publish Anne Warner's new book, "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary." On October 7, the same firm will publish "The Ballingtons," a powerful novel of modern social relations, by Frances Squire, a new Western writer.

THE ARTHUR H. CLARK COMPANY, Cleveland, O., have recently published an important volume on early American history, "Early Western Travels in Illinois: 1818-1821." This comprises four contemporary accounts of the exploration and settlement of the Illinois country, written by Thomas Hulme, Richard Flower and John Woods. These travellers were keen observers of conditions in the Middle West, and contain valuable observations on the face of the country, prospects of new towns, early pioneers and prices and wages.

The work has been edited, with notes and introductions, by Dr. Reuben Gold Thwaites. They have also just issued an important volume on early American history, "Early Western Journals: 1742-1765." This volume presents the best and rarest contemporary accounts of the most interesting period of early Pennsylvania history, giving the journals of Conrad Weiser and George Croghan, Indian agents from 1748-1765, and of Post, the Moravian missionary. These journals form the very best contemporary material for the history of the last French war and Pontiac's conspiracy, and are also edited by Dr. Thwaites.

HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & Co. have brought out this week a large paper edition in six volumes, limited to 150 numbered copies, of "The English Works of George Herbert," newly arranged and annotated, and considered in relation to his life, by George Herbert Palmer—the result of the labor of a lifetime, a labor of love, and perhaps the most thoroughly edited edition of an English poet in existence; "Two Bird-Lovers in Mexico," by C. William Beebe, a readable narrative of the journey of an ornithologist and his wife across Mexico from Vera Cruz to the Pacific and back, with more than 100 illustrations; "The Counsels of a Worldly Godmother," by Persis Mather, a series of letters dealing with the daily round of modern society; "The Green Shay," by George S. Wasson, a story depicting the present conditions in a corner of Maine, where the inhabitants, fine old American stock, have somewhat degenerated; "Lonely O'Malley," by Arthur Stringer, a humorous story that strongly suggests both "Tom Sawyer" and "The Story of a Bad Boy," with illustrations by Frank T. Merrill; "The Star Jewels, and Other Wonders," a collection of fairy stories for children by Abbie Farwell Brown, with pictures by Ethel C. Brown; "The Immanence of God," by Professor Borden P. Browne, of the Boston University, whose aim is to correct the popular confusion in regard to the natural and supernatural; also, a Riverside Press edition of "The Love Poems of John Donne," edited by Charles Eliot Norton, of which only 500 copies are for sale.

THE MACMILLAN COMPANY have just brought out the following books: "Rational Living: some practical inferences from modern psychology," by Professor Henry Churchill King; "An Island in the Air," by Ernest Ingersoll; "The Industrial History of the United States," by Professor Katharine Coman; the Globe edition of "The Diary of Samuel Pepys;" "Alcestis, and Other Poems," by Sara King Wiley; "The Economics of Agriculture," by Henry C. Taylor; and "The Elements of Sociology," by Frank W. Blackmar, in the Citizens' Library of Economics, Politics and Sociology; "Representative Essays on the Theory of Style," by Professor William T. Brewster; "Civics: Studies in American Citizenship," by Waldo H. Sherman; "Surgical Aspects of Digestive Disorders," by Dr. James G. Mumford and Dr. Arthur K. Stone; a new edition of "The Structure and Development of the Mosses and Ferns," by Professor Douglas H. Campbell; and Shakespeare's "Henry v.," edited by Ralph Hartt Bowles, in Macmillan's Pocket Classics. They announce that "Fair Margaret: a Portrait" is the correct title of F. Marion Crawford's forthcoming novel. In some unaccountable way the statement got into the press that the title of Mr. Crawford's new novel was to be "The Soprano," and this piece of misinformation has been copied from paper to paper all over the country. The novel will appear this fall, with illustrations by H. T. Carpenter, well known to the book-trade through his connection with H. S. Stone, the Cosmopolitan, etc.

SALES IN PREPARATION.

The Merrill-Clayton Sales Company, who opened their salesroom about a year ago, have succeeded beyond their expectations, their business having steadily increased in quantity, and improved in quality, and at the close they were obliged to carry over some unsold consignments. For the season just commencing they have in preparation the following:

The library and dramatic collection of William J. Le Moyne, the well-known comedian, consisting of books, portraits, prints, etc.

The collection of first editions of American authors, made by Charles E. Pyser, of Paterson, N. J., which includes Bryant, Emerson, Hawthorne, Holmes, Longfellow, Lowell, Thoreau and Whittier, and is a notable collection with many rare items.

A portion (Part II.) of the library of John Kendrick Bangs, of which the first portion was sold in February. A choice collection of rare books and autographs.

A collection of letters from the correspondence of Cyrus W. Field, including manuscripts, books and prints.

The library of the late Dr. Edwin Hamilton Davis, of New York, the eminent archaeologist.

A portion of the library of the late J. Romeyn Brodhead, consisting chiefly of Americana, with many rare items.

Part II. of the dramatic collection of the late George Becks, the first part of which was sold in March.

Part III. of General James Grant Wilson's large collection of autograph letters, manuscripts, portraits and prints.

An unusual collection of early printed and rare books from the library of the late Professor Charles Short, of Columbia College, and other private sources.

A large private collection of bibliographical works, many rare and valuable.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

Under the heading "Books Wanted" book-trade subscribers are given the privilege of a free advertisement for books out of print, of five nonpareil lines exclusive of address, in any issue except special numbers, to an extent not exceeding 100 lines a year. If more than five lines are sent, the excess is at 10 cents a line, and amount should be inclosed. Bids for current books and such as may be easily had from the publishers, and repeated matter, as well as all advertisements from non-subscribers, must be paid for at the rate of 10 cents a line.

Under the heading "Books for Sale," the charge to subscribers and non-subscribers is 10 cents a nonpareil line for each insertion. No deduction for repeated matter.

All other small, undisplayed, advertisements will be charged at the uniform rate of 10 cents a nonpareil line. Eight words may be reckoned to the line.

Parties with whom we have no accounts must pay in advance, otherwise no notice will be taken of their communications.

BOOKS WANTED.

☞ In answering, please state edition, condition, and price, including postage or express charges.

☞ Houses that are willing to deal exclusively on a cash-on-delivery basis will find it to their advantage to put after their firm-name the word (Cash).

☞ Write your wants plainly and on one side of the sheet only. Illegibly-written "wants" will be considered as not having been received. The "Publishers' Weekly" does not hold itself responsible for errors.

It should be understood that the appearance of advertisements in this column, or elsewhere in the "Publishers' Weekly" does not furnish a guarantee of credit. While it is endeavored to safeguard these columns by withdrawing the privilege of their use from advertisers who are not "good pay," booksellers should take the usual precaution, as to advertisers not known to them, that they would take in making sales to any unknown parties.

THE PETER NEWELL MOTHER GOOSE

The old Rhymes reproduced in connection with their veracious history

By Carolyn Sherwin Bailey. With twenty-two illustrations and a cover design by Peter Newell. $1.50.

Mr. Newell, the well known artist, has actually put new spirit into the familiar Mother Goose characters, and Miss Bailey, while retaining the familiar rhymes, has put the same characters through a most amusing lot of adventures sure to appeal to any child, and probably to old folks, too.

THE WIZARDS OF RYETOWN

By A. Constance Smedley and L. A. Talbot. Illustrated, $1.50.

A fairy story with a touch of drollery and some clever nonsense verses. The plot is a clever variation of the good old story, with its little girl in fairy land, its lively and malicious witch, its lovely prince, and its happily ever after. The inhabitants of Ryetown and Barleytown, the fairy cities of the story, are all original and captivating. The characters, the plot, the conversations, and the incidents are of the sort which children like best.

LOSER'S LUCK

By Charles Tenney Jackson. 12mo, $1.50.

The unusual romance, by a new Californian author, of Dolores Delgado, the last of a royal native race in Central America, a yachtsman, and others who were loyal to her, including the "American legion" that left San Francisco a gang of roughs, and ended a band of heroes. Dryden's words "All for Love, or the world well lost" give the spirit of this novel, in which love and peril dominate, even though humor abounds. "Comic opera revolution" though it may be in which these people engage, the "Dagoes" they encounter are no cowards, and the result is, the publishers' readers say, "some fighting that can hold its own with any in fiction."

ANIMAL SNAPSHOTS

By Silas A. Lottridge. Illustrated, $1.75 net.

Extraordinary pictures of some of our familiar wild animals and birds in their native environment, from photographs taken in the field by the author. Accompanying the pictures are papers on the life and habits of the subjects. These papers are charmingly and simply written and show an intimate acquaintance with the little creatures they describe.

EXTINCT ANIMALS

By Professor E. Kay Lankester. Illustrated, 8vo, $1.75 net.

An interesting book by one of the highest authorities, based on the author's successful course of popular lectures. The narrative is well unified and developed, and the style so simple that children may enjoy the work.

Our Fall List of Fiction

My Friend the Chauffeur

By C. N. and A. M. WILLIAMSON

Authors of "The Lightning Conductor" and "The Princess Passes"

Sunny romance is the key-note of this delightful automobile story which is the outcome of the following newspaper advertisement: WANTED, Ladies to Conduct. An amateur automobilist (English, titled) who drives his own motor car accommodating five persons, offers to conduct two or three ladies, Americans preferred, to any picturesque centres in Europe which they may desire to visit," etc. The outcome of this act is a love story, a story of adventure, and a volume of European travel all in one.

Cloth, 12mo, six illustrations, $1.50.

The Ancient Landmark

By ELIZABETH CHERRY WALTZ

Author of "Pa Gladden"

A stirring "Blue Grass" novel presenting a dramatic love story and a delightful picture of a Kentucky town with all its characteristic surroundings. Mrs. Waltz has drawn with remarkable skill the characters who appear in this charming problem novel, wherein the heroine is not permitted to divorce her maniac husband because tradition says "No." But a distant cousin, by his nobility of conduct and character, proves his right to her and conquers the "ancient landmark" of prejudice.

Cloth, 12mo, $1.50.

The Work of Our Hands

By H. A. MITCHELL KEAYS

Author of "He That Eateth Bread With Me"

A powerful story of a woman's struggle against the shams of religion and the selfishness of wealth. The heroine, who has been brought up in somewhat straightened circumstances and in a religious atmosphere, marries the millionaire son of a great mill-owner, and the story of her fight to alleviate the misery and suffering among the poor, downtrodden mill hands by using her husband's millions, is dramatic, indeed, and beyond the ordinary run of pleasant, accomplished story-telling.

Cloth, 12mo, $1.50.

THE PANG-YANGER

By ELMA A. TRAVIS, M.D.

A strong, striking novel of American life by a new and promising writer. The scene is laid in the picturesque and rugged Catskills, and the hero, Abijah Beade, is a true son of the soil, vigorous, primitive and passionate, who seeks revenge upon a woman really his wife, who has taken advantage of the lack of witnesses to their union to desert Abijah and his son, and make what she supposes as a richer marriage. The story of his relations to the two women who divide with him the interest of the book involves a situation of original conception and extraordinary interest.

Our Fall List of Fiction

Back Home

By EUGENE WOOD

BACK HOME! Back to the good old country village where you passed your childhood! As the author says: "Here is your transportation all made out in your hands." It is a volume of most delightful reveries over the old swimming pool, the little red school-house, the singing school, the county fair, circus day, fireman's tournament, etc., and throughout all these humorous recollections you are shaken up with the most grateful kind of laughter.

A Prisoner's Story of the Cross

By PETER ROSECCER

The conception of this book is original, almost daring. It is supposed to be written by a carpenter of socialistic tendencies sentenced to be hanged for a crime of which he is legally, but not morally, guilty. As he sits in his cell waiting for the day of his death, the desire for some sort of spiritual comfort grows within him, and presently he finds himself writing what seems to him the real story of Jesus Christ. The author approaches the sacred subject with all reverence, and makes an uplifting and inspiring story.

Cloth, 12mo, eight illustrations in four colors, $1.50.

Told by Uncle Remus

By JOEL CHANDLER HARRIS

It is a generation since the first Uncle Remus stories appeared to delight the young folks. Here is a sheaf of new ones to bring joy to the children of those children, and no parent can afford to miss the opportunity of introducing his children to the wonderland of Br'er Rabbit, Mr. Fox, Sis Cow, Sis Hen, et. al., through this new volume. There is also a pleasure in the process for the parent that he should not overlook. The book is richly and profusely illustrated with sixty pictures by Frost, Verbeck and Conde.

Cloth, $2.00.

The Fortunes of the Landrays

By VAUGHAN KESTER

A big, romantic story of American life, panoramic and epic in its handling. The author seems to have aimed to give in story form a picture of the most striking events in our country's history during the larger portion of this century. He weaves his story around the fortunes of the house of the Landrays, and no less than four generations of the family appear. In turn he pictures a little Ohio village of the time when Ohio was still the frontier, the California gold excitement, the crossing of the Indian-infested plains by the gold seekers, the Civil War period, the boom-town epoch in the Middle West, all these come into his story, and are treated with remarkable understanding and forcefulness.

McClure's New Fall Books

Two Books by Charles Wagner

Author of

"The Simple Life," "The Better Way," "By the Fireside," "On Life's Threshold," etc.

Justice

Mr. Wagner points out in this little volume that it is not only necessary to live the simple life, but also to live the upright life; and that we must consider justice not only in regard to our fellow man, but also in regard to ourselves, not only in regard to our acts, but in regard to our thoughts. There is a plenitude of plain thinking and a world of philosophy in these comforting pages. Uniform with other Wagner books.

Postpaid $1.07; net $1.00.

Gospel of Life

Here Mr. Wagner refers to this volume as the note-book of his life, in which he has jotted down opinions on all questions of conduct and thought that have interested him. He has done it in an interesting and human way, for each line of thought has been suggested to him by some picturesque, or pathetic, or amusing incident, and, therefore, this chatty little volume of his observations and meditations becomes an interesting picture-gallery of all phases of life. Uniform with other Wagner books.

Bible History

By Prof. XAVIER KOENIG

This book contains a series of fifty lessons on the Old Testament viewed in the new light of indisputable historical facts that modern research and criticism have unearthed. The matter is so arranged that the book may be used for students of from ten to twelve years upward, and Professor Koenig's purpose is to make the Bible known as it is, or as it must be for us of this generation.

Wives of Henry VIII.

By MARTIN HUME

Author of "The Courtships of Queen Elizabeth" and "The Love Affairs of Mary, Queen of Scots"

Unusual opportunities to get at little-known documents and a great deal of diligent research coupled with a brilliant historical faculty, have enabled Major Hume in this book to produce a volume of rare interest. Heretofore little has been known concerning the lives of the unfortunate consorts of Henry VIII., and these poor ladies have been viewed only in their relation to King Henry. From pathetic Catharine of Aragon, to strong-willed Katherine Parr, they furnish a very wide romantic interest in themselves; in fact, the entire book reads like a historical novel.

The Mysterious Stranger

And Other Cartoons

By JOHN T. McCUTCHEON

A humorous and satirical record of the history of our country during the last three or four years—that is what we have in the collection of a hundred pictures by America's greatest cartoonist, John T. McCutcheon, the "Dooley of the pencil." Here every important event that has happened and every important personage who has appeared to attract public attention is presented with a distortion of outline so droll, yet with such extraordinary underlying vivacity, that we feel that the artist must have employed some tricky elfish camera for his snapshots. Of course, the President takes first place in this record. Never has he been presented in so many surprising varieties of adventure and with such an infinity of characteristic attitudes and gestures. Here we have, too, the incidents of a presidential campaign, the sights and scenes of the St. Louis Fair, the events of the war, episodes of boy and girl life, of the holidays, etc., etc. History and fiction in pictures for words, that he who runs may read—this is the treat that awaits the purchaser of this delightful book. 162 full-page illustrations.

Portfolio of Bird Portraits

By BRUCE HORSFALL

With Notes by W. E. D. SCOTT

The eight pictures of familiar birds which are here exquisitely and truthfully reproduced in twelve colors have all been drawn with the greatest care and skill by Mr Bruce Horsfall who has made the most careful study of these birds in their natural surroundings. Valuable descriptive notes prepared by Professor W. E. D. Scott, Director of the Worthington Society for the Investigation of Bird Life, accompany each picture and give additional value to the beautiful prints. This is a work for the art lover, for the scientist, for the bird-student; it may be bound in portfolio form; or they are peculiarly adapted for framing and the beautifying of the home.

Two Hand-Books of Great Value

Foster's Complete Bridge

By R. F. FOSTER

Author of "American Leads," "Duplicate Whist," etc.

The King Leads

Mr. Foster is America's leading Bridge expert and a writer on Whist in all its forms. This book on Bridge, covering every phase of it, is, unquestionably, the most thorough volume on the game yet published. It is for the beginner and for the advanced player as well. The beginner will find the first principles of the game lucidly explained, and the proper leads under ordinary circumstances clearly shown by a very ingenious arrangement of diagrams through which the playing of sample hands is indicated. The experienced player will find very valuable the later chapters, in which the author takes up very thoroughly the fine points of the game. Among other things, the author gives in as complete a form as possible all the rules of the game.

Cloth. Illustrated in color with many diagrams. Postpaid, $1.62; net, $1.50

The Complete Golfer

By HARRY VARDON

The author of this hand-book is, unquestionably, the greatest golf player that the world has ever seen; and has more knowledge of the art, science, and technique of the game than any man alive. He has a rare faculty for imparting his knowledge and offers to even the most experienced golfer a host of helpful hints, the ripe fruit of his own varied and long experience. He takes up the selection of clubs, the proper handling and correct grips for each, and the most profitable methods of practice. He gives directions for the stances for every kind of stroke and illustrates his suggestions with over fifty photographs of himself making the strokes. This book is invaluable to every golf enthusiast and person interested in the game.

Books of General Interest

The Torch

By George Edward Woodberry, author of "Makers of Literature," etc. This brilliant and fascinating book will be eagerly read by all those who are interested in the relation between literature and life. The eight chapters of the book were originally delivered as lectures before the Lowell Institute of Boston.

Cloth. Postpaid, $1.30; net, $1.20

Swinburne

By George Edward Woodberry. This is a new volume in the Contemporary Men of Letters Series, edited by William A. Bradley, which provides in brief condensed form critical biographies of the writers who have had the greatest influence upon our time.

Postpaid, 83 cents; net, 75 cents

Franklin in History

By William MacDonald. A new picture of Franklin is here presented to the reader in this book. The author has drawn him chiefly as the great diplomat carrying the burden of a new nation upon his shoulders through the courts of Europe, and fighting on foreign soil a crafty campaign for the welfare of a young country. The approaching bi-centenary in 1906 of Franklin's birth gives this book a special interest.

Cloth. Illustrated with portraits. Postpaid, $2.70; net, $2.50

The Horse in America

By John Gilmer Speed. The author has made a very complete handbook that will be of value to every one who possesses a horse, or who is interested in the subject. The history of the horse in America is full of interest and romance, as Mr. Speed's narrative shows. It gives a brief account of the progenitors of the horse, and then takes up every breed for which our country has been noted.

Cloth. Sixteen illustrations, two in color. Postpaid, $1.20; net, $2.00

A Modern Symposium

By G. Lowes Dickinson, author of "Letters from a Chinese Official." Here is an intellectual tonic; a brilliant, inspiring and broadening piece of thinking backed by a strong human interest. The author has presented a half-score of typical characters of our time in the act of stripping their mental lives bare and explaining why they are, what they are, and why they hold their ideals.

Cloth. Postpaid, $1.07; net, $1.00

The Cost of Competition

By Sidney A. Reeve. The author demonstrates in this book the great tax laid upon the community by the disproportionate attention and reward given under modern social condition to traders, i.e., business men. Just the act of getting a product to market, he points out, cost us extraordinarily. This need not be, he believes, but is due to the completely commercial trend of our civilization, which results in robbing the producer for the benefit of the trade. A strong book for political thinkers.

Cloth. Illustrated. Postpaid, $2.17; net, $2.00

Plunkitt of Tammany Hall

By William A. Riordon. The candid reflections of a remarkable politician, who has made two millions in "honest" graft because "he seen his opportunities and he took 'em." It is a new political philosophy. The N. Y. Globe says: "The reading public owes a debt of gratitude to Riordon, his discoverer. 'Plunkitt of Tammany Hall' is every bit as entertaining as 'Mr. Dooley.' A 'character' has been added to literature."

Cloth. Price, $1.00

A Commercial Traveler in South America

By Frank Wiborg. A delightful book of travel by an American business man; a chatty, informal record of interesting things seen by him during a trip through the chief countries of South America. Business men will find Mr. Wiborg's book suggestive, and will make American manufacturers and traders realize how they are letting golden opportunity escape them in the South American markets.

Chronicles of the Little Tot

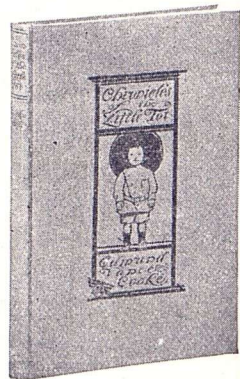

By EDMUND VANCE COOKE

8vo, cloth, $1.50; leather, $2.00

Mr. Cooke needs no introduction to the American public—much of his child-verse, under the title "Chronicles of the Little Tot," appeared in the Saturday Evening Post, and created probably more interest than any other poems that paper has printed. His verses have humor, deep philosophy, and pathos. His child-poems show a deep insight and thorough understanding of child-life and character.

A well-known editor, writing in reference to one of the poems in this book, said:

"I have never reprinted anything during all my public experience that gave me greater satisfaction. I was touched beyond expression by the beauty of the poem. It says with perfect expression, and a proper repression, so that all mere sentimentality is perfectly eliminated—something that, as far as we know, never has been said, but that has certainly been waiting to be said since the first little child to go into the other world went alone on its first journey. I know of nothing better in American literature, and I have never said this before to any writer."

A Cynic's Meditations

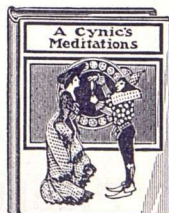

By WALTER PULITZER 16mo, boards, 75c., leather, $1.00

A bright little book of epigrams, brimful of satire and humor, calculated to take the dull edge off the tired brain. When the world looks blue here is a tonic to drive care away.

"Generally speaking, a woman is—generally speaking."

"The one certain thing about woman is her uncertainty."

"A friend in need is a friend—we usually shun."

Don't Fret Have Courage

By JEANNIE GILLESPIE PENNINGTON

16mo, cloth, per vol., 50c.; leather, 75c.

These two new volumes by the author of the "Don't Worry Nuggets" will delight thousands who are familiar with Miss Pennington's previous work. They are ideal books to place in the hands of any who need the help of cheerful, uplifting thoughts.

Translated by Edward Fitzgerald, with photographic illustrations by Adelaide Hanscom, together with border designs and decorations.

This edition has been pronounced by critics to be one of the most remarkable examples of photographic art ever presented to the public and is certain to attract wide attention.

Miss Hanscom has had the assistance and advice of Dr. Orlow in arranging costumes. The following well-known poets and writers of the West are among those who have posed as models, lending much to the value of the work by their thoughtful interpretation of the verses: Joaquin Miller, George Wharton James, George Sterling, Professor Charles Keeler.

Thought Transference

"Thought Transference" by NORTHCOTE W. THOMAS. 12mo, cloth, $1.25

Since the foundation of the Society for Psychical Research more than twenty-three years ago, a great mass of more or less well-evidenced material has been published upon subjects such as THOUGHT-TRANFERENCE, CRYSTAL GAZING, GHOSTS, MEDIUMSHIP, PHYSICAL PHENOMENA and other so-called "occult" manifestations. There have— notwithstanding the unquestioned great public interest in these subjects—been but few attempts to sum up the evidence and make it available for the ordinary citizen who cannot find time to read the whole of the thirty volumes published by the Society. Even in the Society's own publications there is, as a rule, no periodical summing up of the evidence for the various phenomena and hypotheses.

This new book by Professor Thomas—"Thought Transference"—deals critically and sympathetically with the evidence and shows what any reasonable man without bias in either direction may regard as proved.

Crystal Gazing

"Crystal Gazing" by NORTHCOTE W. THOMAS

12mo, cloth, $1.25

"Crystal Gazing: Its history and practice, with a discussion of the evidence of Telepathic Scrying," is the title of the first volume in this series by Professor Thomas, with an introduction by Andrew Lang, M.A., LL.D. Professor Lang gives his experiences with Crystal Gazing in a most interesting introduction and Professor Thomas critically examines the evidence of a long series of experiments.

As showing what has been tested and proven in Psychical Research these two books are of great value as well as of fascinating interest. Every thoughtful man and woman should read them.

MISCELLANEOUS—DODGE PUBLISHING CO.

Vivian Grey (2 vols.)
and
The Young Duke (1 vol.)

The Centenary Edition of Beaconsfield's Works. To be issued in twelve volumes, with copyrighted introductions by LUCIEN WOLF. 12mo, cloth, per volume, $1.50

In all cases the first editions have been reprinted. Each work is provided with an introduction in which an effort is made to unravel out the circumstances of its composition, and to measure at once the part it played in its author's life, and the part its author himself plays in its story. A few explanatory notes are added at the end, and each novel is equipped with an index, and will contain at least one portrait.

HARPER'S

FALL PUBLICATIONS

FICTION

THE GAMBLER

By Katherine Cecil Thurston

Mrs. Thurston again gives the world a novel of striking and original achievement. In "The Gambler" she has portrayed a heroine as superbly fascinating as she is unusual in fiction. A powerful story, as magical in its charm as was "The Masquerader."

Illustrated. $1.50

EDITORIAL WILD OATS

By Mark Twain

A volume containing several of Mark Twain's funniest sketches, all narrating various journalistic experiences of his youth. Among the stories are "Journalism in Tennessee," "My First Literary Venture," and other bits of literary whimsicality and adventure.

Illustrated. $1.00

THE TRAVELLING THIRDS

By Gertrude Atherton

Gertrude Atherton has done nothing better than this. Puck and Cupid work midsummer madness among a party travelling in Europe, and the climax is a brilliant and surprising stroke of imagination.

$1.25

MRS. RAFFLES

By John Kendrick Bangs

Mr. Bangs has amusingly parodied the adventures of the celebrated Raffles in narrating the burglaries in which, after Raffles' death, his widow is engaged.

Illustrated. $1.25

THE DEBTOR

By Mary E. Wilkins Freeman

A novel which from its moving dramatic interest and human appeal should find a popular reception with the many thousands who have read and loved Mary E. Wilkins' New England tales.

Illustrated. $1.50

HARPER & BROTHERS, Publishers, NEW YORK

THE CONQUEST OF CANAAN

By Booth Tarkington

Booth Tarkington here returns to the scene of his first success, "The Gentleman from Indiana." It is a splendid story of the triumph of character against great odds, and far in advance of anything Mr. Tarkington has yet done.

Illustrated. $1.50

POLE BAKER

By Will N. Harben

A shrewd, kindly, shirt-sleeves philosopher. Pole Baker will be remembered as a humorous character in the author's "Abner Daniel." Here he has some capital yarns to tell, and an important part to play in the love story.

$1.50

THE PASSPORT

By Richard Bagot

A romance of modern Italy. The scene is laid at a castle, the mediæval home of the Acorari, in a little hill-town, giving a delightful old-world touch to the narrative. Two suave and wily villains plot to obtain the heroine's hand and estates to their own final discomfiture.

$1.50

REBECCA MARY

By Annie Hamilton Donnell

All the charm of quaint old New England lingers in this volume, and the knowledge of child-psychology shown by the author is wonderfully acute. Mrs. Donnell has created a "new heroine of fiction," who will win her way with all ault readers, although she is only a girl of eleven. Illustrated by Elizabeth Shippen Green.

$1.50

THE COMING OF BILLY

By Margaret Westrup

A delightfully humorous story for grown-ups. Billy comes to England to visit his five maiden aunts. The resulting complications, including a charming romance, in which Billy plays providence, are various and laughable.

$1.25

LAND HO!

By Morgan Robertson

Humor and pathos are mingled in pleasing measure in these new sea stories. Scotty, an original old-salt, will long be remembered by the delighted reader.

$1.25

THE TRIDENT AND THE NET

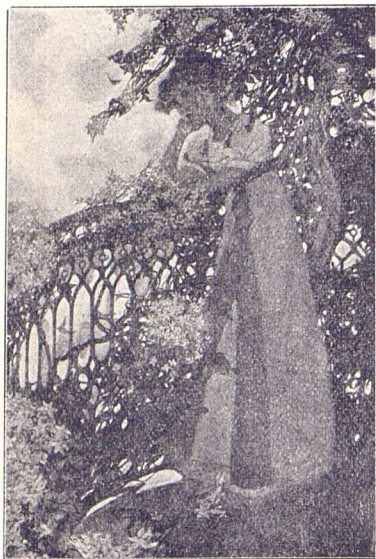

A Novel by the Author of
"The Martyrdom of an Empress"

"The Trident and the Net" constitutes the début of this anonymous and popular author as a novelist, and signalizes her entrance into a new literary field. Her powers of vivid description and of realistic narration, which lifted her former books above the ordinary class of biographies, have in this work freer scope than ever before.

LIPPINCOTT'S NEW GAZETTEER

THE dictionary of universal geography that is now offered to the public is the successor of Lippincott's Pronouncing Gazetteer, which in its various editions has been before the English-speaking world for half a century. It is a new publication, printed from new type from title-page to cover. Only the framework or skeleton of its predecessor has been retained, together with the system of pronunciation introduced by that great master, Dr. Joseph Thomas.

The present publication will be found to present an accurate picture of the globe in its minutest details as it exists in the twentieth century. Each one of its 100,000 notices, varying in length from a single line to thousands of words, speaks for itself.

An important adjunct to the geographic treatment of places is the historic reference, which has been subjected to the same rigid scrutiny as the more purely geographical data, and the student in history will find in this publication a most valuable and reliable guide in the prosecution of his own particular work. The Gazetteer presents, further, the most complete and accurate guide in the pronunciation of place names that has yet appeared in the English language—in this respect holding a distinctive position of its own. Particular attention has been bestowed upon the proper rendering of East European and Oriental names,—Russian, Hungarian, Asiatic, etc. A most valuable feature of the work is the mention of classical names.

As an evidence of its comprehensiveness, it need only be remarked that the present work contains upward of 27,000 titles that do not appear in its predecessor.

STOKES' AUT

New Fiction

COPYRIGHT BY DAVIS & SANFORD

A SERVANT of the PUBLIC

By Anthony Hope, author of "Quisante," "Phroso," "The Prisoner of Zenda," etc.

A story of the private life and personal emotions of a famous actress—showing not only how she seemed to the world outside her profession, but also how that profession made her what she was and inevitably ordered her life and actions.

"It is psychologic—but with a difference, the difference being the bright and compelling interest of Mr. Hope's dialogue, and the smiling sanity of his spirit. Imagine much that is best in Meredith or James, and all that is best in Anthony Hope, and you have a fair idea of 'A Servant of the Public.'"—THE GLOBE, New York.

Illustrated. 12mo, cloth, $1.50

The SPECULATIONS of JOHN STEELE

By Robert Barr, author of "The Victors," "Tekla," etc.

A lively story of business adventure, of mystery, and of exciting adventure, with a love episode amazing in its originality and cleverness. The struggle of the hero with the greatest monetary power in the world is particularly vivid and interesting.

Illustrated by F. R. Gruger. Cloth, 12mo, $1.50

The HEART of LADY ANNE

By Agnes and Egerton Castle, authors of "Rose of the World," "The Bath Comedy," "The Pride of Jennico," etc.

A new story of "Sweet Kitty Bellairs," with new companions and amid new surroundings. With four superb illustrations in colors by Ethel Franklin Betts, and with decorative title-page, head-pieces, initials, etc., in two colors, by Frederick G. Hall. A splendid gift book for the holidays.

Illustrated in colors. Cloth, 12mo, $1.50; white cloth, gilt edges, boxed, $2.50

The BLACK SPANIEL

By Robert Hichens, author of "The Garden of Allah," "The Woman with the Fan," "Felix," etc.

FREDERICK A.
STOKES CO.
New York

A long story and several shorter ones, the former dealing with a most curious psychological manifestation growing out of the cruel treatment of a dog. The plot, apart from its compelling appeal against vivisection, baffles the reader and, against his will, holds his attention to the last word.

Illustrated. 12mo, cloth, $1.50

UMN BOOKS

"The GARDEN of ALLAH" is in its ninth large edition, the "best selling" book in the United States, and is steadily increasing in popularity.

New Books for Children

SIR TOADY CRUSOE

By S. R. Crockett. Profusely illustrated
by GORDON BROWNE.

The first book for children that Mr. Crockett has published in several years, and all who are familiar with his delightful "Sweetheart Travellers" and "Sir Toady Lion" will heartily welcome the new book. With all the experience of an unusual childhood to draw upon, with a boundless sympathy for the ideals and interests of children, and with a charm of style not surpassed by any modern writer, this new book should be one of the most popular as well as one of the most worthy of the present season.

Large 12mo, cloth, $1.50

JAPANESE CHILD LIFE

With 8 full-page illustrations in colors by ALICE MAR, accompanied by appropriate verses and stories by ALICE CALHOUN HAINES.

This beautiful series of colored pictures shows tiny Japs at work and at play—the little flower sellers, the little lantern painters, fruit blossom gatherers, and children at their work and their studies. The verses and stories are well chosen and carry out the spirit of the illustrations, interesting the child in the pictures, and unconsciously imparting a great deal of information.

Large 4to, boards, covers in colors, $1.50

OLD FASHIONED TALES

Selected by E. V. Lucas. Frontispiece in colors, and many illustrations by F. D. BEDFORD.

A fascinating collection of the stories that were told to children a hundred years ago.

STOKES' AUT

The BASSES, FRESH-WATER and MARINE

By William C. Harris, and Others. Edited by LOUIS RHEAD, with an introduction by TARLETON H. BEAN, and with numerous illustrations in colors and black-and-white by LOUIS RHEAD.

This volume is similar in style and treatment to "The Brook Trout," published by the same authors some years ago, but more profusely illustrated and with a binding of unusual originality. It is an exhaustive treatise upon this important fish: its habits, its value, its geography, the methods of capture, etc.; prepared by men recognized in the world of sport as authorities.

8vo, cloth, $3.50 net; postpaid, $3.72

The FERN ALLIES of NORTH AMERICA

By Willard Nelson Clute, author of "Our Ferns in Their Haunts," etc. With 8 colored plates and nearly 200 line and half-tone illustrations and diagrams by IDA MARTIN CLUTE.

Mr. Clute's "Our Ferns in Their Haunts" remains the standard work on the ferns of North America. In the preparation of this sequel, dealing with the allied forms of plant life not included in the fern families, the same careful attention to detail has been given that characterized the earlier book. Both scientific and common names are given. The illustrations have been drawn directly from living plants.

THE SIEGE OF THE SOUTH POLE

By H. R. Mill. Illustrated with numerous half-tones, colored map, etc.

There is no book—other than the cumbersome reports of the various explorations, interesting in themselves but to many unavailable—to which the student or the general reader may refer for a concise, authoritative account of the discoveries in the South Polar Regions.

For many centuries the vast unknown region of sea and ice and storm "at the bottom of the world" has beckoned with alluring hands to the intrepid mariners of the north. But just who has been successful and what has been accomplished in this quest for the South Pole are very little known.

Dr. Mill has collected into this volume, in consecutive form, a vast amount of material—in fact everything from the speculations of the ancients in regard to the Great Southern Ocean to the twentieth-century explorations of Nordenskjöld, Bruce, and Scott; a narrative of courage, sacrifice, and adventure that has not been matched by any other written.

NEW VOLUME IN REGIONS OF THE WORLD SERIES THE FAR EAST

By ARCHIBALD LITTLE. Containing chapters on China, The Yellow River, Manchuria, Tibet, Korea, Japan, etc. 8vo, cloth, with 8 colored maps and numerous illustrations, $2.00.

THE ELEMENTS OF RAILWAY ECONOMICS

By W. M. ACWORTH, author of "The Railways of England," "The Railways and the Traders," &c., 8vo, cloth, 70 cents.

"An intelligent man, if he will apply his mind for a few hours to the study of this little book, may have a clearer understanding of the problem of railway rates than is now manifested by most of our public speakers and newspaper editors. Mr. Acworth has explained a difficult problem with such admirable lucidity as to bring it within the popular comprehension, and he would have been censurable had he hid his light under a bushel. While his book may have been intended for his students at the London School of Economics, and while his illustrations and applications are primarily English, the American people stand in especial need of its lessons, and their need has never been so great as it will be during the coming years."—The Evening Post, May 8, 1905.

SHAKESPEARE—Facsimile Reproductions of the Portions of Shakespeare Not Included in the First Folio

Each volume has been printed by the collotype process from the finest accessible copy of the original issue, and, except in point of size, is of similar character to the collotype reproduction of the Shakespeare First Folio which the delegates published in 1902.

This series of reproductions has been executed under the superintendence of Mr. Sidney Lee, who will embody in full introductions the latest results of his researches regarding the bibliographical history of each of the four volumes of Shakespeare's poems and of the play of Pericles.

[The number of copies printed, of which only a portion now remains unsold, is limited to 1,250, of which 250 are for America. All copies will be numbered, and Venus and Adonis, the first volume of each set, will be signed by Mr. Lee.]

Another Fall with Only 20 Books

IN the belief that quality is more desirable than quantity, we have again restricted the number of our Fall publications to something like twenty books—our aim being to have fewer and better books with each succeeding year.

Particularly noteworthy this season are "The Missourian" (which in The Bookman for October is listed among the Six Best Selling Books in America); "A Southern Girl in '61," by the daughter of Senator Wigfall, of Texas; "Ayesha, the Return of She," by H. Rider Haggard, author of "She"; and "Concerning Belinda," by Eleanor Hoyt Brainerd; but we may as well complete the list, for they are all noteworthy :

Nelson's New Century Library

IS BECOMING MORE POPULAR EVERY YEAR

The contents of two large books contained in one small, richly bound volume, without reducing the size of the type. The works of the best authors have never been obtainable in a form so elegant—nothing like the New Century Library has ever been produced. Large novels formerly requiring two bulky volumes are issued in one handsome book, not thicker than a monthly magazine and of pocket size— $6\frac{1}{4}$ x $4\frac{1}{4}$ inches, yet the size of the type is not reduced.

FALL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Phyllis Burton

By
MRS. S. R. GRAHAM CLARK

12mo. Fully Illustrated.

Price, $1.00 net
postpaid, $1.14

This book deals with the life of a common New England village. The center of it is the doctor's home, and the heroine is the daughter, Phyllis, or, Phil, as she was universally called. About her and her sister and cousin the other characters are made to revolve, and they act their parts well. Interesting from beginning to end.

Winning His Degree

By
EVERETT T. TOMLINSON

12mo. Fully Illustrated.

Price, $1.00 net
postpaid, $1.10

With this book Mr. Tomlinson concludes the "Winner Series." It deals with the advanced years in college, as "Winning His 'W'" did with those of the freshman and sophomore. In this he enters a field comparatively unmarked by the storyteller. In it, too, he holds to his ideal of a boy "not preternaturally good nor unnaturally bad," and Will Phelps still embodies it.

The Appointed Way

By HOPE DARING

16mo. Illustrated.

Price, $1.25 net

Hope Daring, which is a nom de plume, has given us a graphic description of the characteristic influence and workings of the Seventh Day Advent Church. The apparent fanaticism and the defects of the entire system of Adventism are well set forth. The characters are well drawn, and the literary quality of the book, in its evidence of wide reading and in its expression, is above the average.

The Higher Criticism Cross-Examined

By FRED. D. STOREY

16mo. Price, $1.25 net; postpaid $1.35

The emphatic point in this book is on the value of evidence, and to discuss this Mr. Storey is peculiarly fitted, since for many years he has been connected with the Appellate Department of the Supreme Court of New York. With clearness of statement, with felicity of expression, and with thoroughness of investigation, Mr. Storey considers the various positions of higher criticism and successfully controverts them.

JUST ISSUED

Russia and Its Crisis

By PAUL MILYUKOV

Formerly Professor of History in the Universities of Moscow and Sofia.

The most authoritative and accurate account of Russian past development and present conditions available in English. The author is a representative of the liberal party known as the "Intellectuals," and his activity in the cause of freedom has already earned him calumny, imprisonment and exile.

The Chicago Evening Post says: "It is invaluable to the reader, who would have an intelligent standpoint for his observation of the course of events in Russia, * * * and is one of the most valuable contributions to the reputable literature of the subject."

CHRISTIAN BELIEF INTERPRETED BY CHRISTIAN EXPERIENCE

By CHARLES CUTHBERT HALL

President of Union Theological Seminary,
New York.

This interesting volume contains the "Barrows Lectures" delivered by President Hall in the leading cities of India and Japan, in connection with the lectureship founded by Mrs. Caroline E. Haskell.

In these days, when the momentous events in the Far East have quickened an interest in all things oriental, this thoughtful and earnest work should be welcomed by everyone who desires to go below the surface for an explanation of the message from the mysterious East for which all are waiting.

THE LITTLE WOMEN CLUB—

Miss Alcott's immortal story so dominates the minds of four girls that they form a club and assume respectively the characters of "Jo," "Meg," "Beth," and "Amy." Naturally a "Grandfather Lawrence" and a "Laurie" are evolved; and the pleasant play is carried to a delightful ending.

GUMPTION

The Progressions of Newson New

By NATHANIEL C. FOWLER, JR.

12mo, cloth, decorative, with illustrations by CHARLES COPELAND. $1.50

This is a tale of Yankee push and progress. It is also a vivid story of modern newspaper life. In following the migrations of an ambitious Cape Cod boy from his native village westward through several New England cities until he finds the field for his life work in a bustling city of the Middle West, the author also gives an interesting picture of the development of modern journalism from the old-fashioned methods of three decades ago to the marvellous activity of to-day. The story is in no way technical: the newspaper life is merely incidental to a remarkably live piece of romance. Mr. Fowler describes conditions and people with a keen directness and felicitous aptness of phrase that will charm all readers by its deep insight and irrepressible humor. Although this is his first essay in fiction, the author has an international reputation as an authority on publicity and business development. His books have had a large sale, and his profession has given him an acquaintance with all phases of American character, which shows itself on every page of his present work.

WHERE COPPER WAS KING

A Tale of the Early Mining Days on Lake Superior

By JAMES NORTH WRIGHT

12mo, cloth, decorative. $1.50

A novel full of adventurous incident and with a delicate vein of romance, recording vividly a picturesque phase of Western life which is fast disappearing. It is interesting to know that the author was formerly the superintendent of the famous Calumet and Hecla mine, and describes in this volume a life which he has actually seen and of which he has been a part.

A NEW BEACON BIOGRAPHY

JOHN FISKE

By THOMAS SERGEANT PERRY

Pocket size, cloth, with photogravure portrait, net, 75 cents; by post, 80 cents

The Beacon Biographies once more achieve the distinction of presenting the first published life of an eminently great American. Mr. Perry enjoyed intimate personal acquaintance with John Fiske for many years, and he presents a vivid picture of the man and his work, that is surprisingly complete for so brief a work. This little volume will not conflict with the more extended lives of this author which must some day appear, but will have a permanent appeal as an adequate miniature portrait.

BLISS CARMAN'S LOW TIDE ON GRAND PRE

TOGETHER WITH

BALLADS OF LOST HAVEN

(Two volumes in one)

16mo, Japan boards, net, $1.50; by post, $1.58

Mr. Carman's two earliest books contain much of the work which gained him his most appreciative recognition and many poems worthy to endure with the best verse of his generation. The public will welcome this new edition, which presents in a single volume all of the contents of these two books, together with a fine portrait of the author.

A HANDBOOK OF FIGURE SKATING

Arranged for Use on the Ice

By GEORGE H. BROWNE, A.M.

Pocket size, full limp leather, net, $1.00; by post, $1.06.
Copiously illustrated

A thoroughly comprehensive handbook, giving in most compact form a remarkable amount of information as to the theory, history, and practical execution of figure skating, and written with real charm of style. The book contains over 600 diagrams, and illustrations and suggestions for nearly 10,000 figures, together with a supplemental chapter on the International Style in Figure Skating.

BACON CRYPTOGRAMS IN SHAKE-SPEARE, and Other Studies

By ISAAC HULL PLATT

12mo, half cloth, net, $1.00; by post, $1.06

This volume does not claim to prove that Bacon wrote Shakespeare, and has nothing to do with any fanciful theory of Bacon's parentage. It gives a concise account of certain newly found cryptograms (some of which are original discoveries of the author) which seem to indicate that Francis Bacon was in some way concerned in the authorship or publication of the poems and plays known as Shakespeare's. It makes no claim upon the faith of the reader, as all points are fully explained and elucidated.

FOOTBALL GRANDMA

An Auto-baby-ography as told by Tony

Edited by CAROLYN S. CHANNING CABOT, with an introduction by THOMAS WENTWORTH HIGGINSON. A book for every nursery and one which every child can read and re-read with delight.

Forthcoming Publications of Funk & Wagnalls Company

The United States in the 20th Century

By PIERRE LEROY-BEAULIEU. Translated by H. Addington Bruce. In this volume the author makes a study of the economic conditions in this country, as the result of a recent visit, his point of view being French. Notable chapters deal with the Negro Problem, of which he writes with much sanity and wisdom; the Tariff and Free Trade; the Trusts and our varied Industries, agricultural and manufacturing. 8vo. cloth. $2.50, net.

The Four Winds of Eirinn

By ANNA MACMANUS (Ethna Carbery). A dainty volume of Irish verse that has received most enthusiastic commendation from the critics. 12mo, cloth, 75 cents, net. (Not for sale by us in Great Britain.)

Successful Men of To-day and What They Say of Success

(New and Enlarged Edition) By WILBUR F. CRAFTS. In this book the way to success is described by hundreds of men of our time and land who have been over the road—statesmen, manufacturers, merchants, educators, reformers, representing a great variety of true success. The new edition has been both revised and enlarged and is at every point up-to-date. It abounds in good stories and watchwords new and old. 12mo, cloth. 20 half-tone portraits. $1.00.

The Preparation of Manuscripts for the Printer

By FRANK H. VIZETELLY, Associate Editor of the Standard Dictionary. Besides giving directions to authors on how to prepare copy and correct proofs, Mr. Vizetelly's work points out how authors can effectively reduce the cost of corrections in type and tells them when, where, and how to make them. 12mo, cloth, 75 cents, net.

Carbonic Acid in Medicine

By DR. ACHILLES ROSE, author of "Atonia Gastrica." This book to many readers will be a revelation. It sets forth facts about the healing qualities of carbonic acid gas which were known centuries ago, and then strangely passed into disuse until they had become unjustly forgotten. 12mo, cloth, 200 pages. $1.00, net.

Weiss's Commentary on the New Testament

By PROF. DR. BERNHARD WEISS, of the University of Berlin. Translated by Prof. George H. Schodde, Ph.D. The translation of this work forms a noteworthy addition to Biblical literature. It represents the result of a life's work on the text and the contents of the New Testament. Four large octave volumes, substantially bound in cloth. $12.00 per set.

Charlotte Temple: A Tale of Truth

By SUSANNA HASWELL ROWSON. With an Historical and Biographical Introduction by Francis W. Halsey. Reprinted from the rare first American edition (1794), over twelve hundred errors in later editions being corrected, and the preface restored. 12mo, cloth. Sixteen Full Page Illustrations, $1.25, post-paid.

CHICAGO

A STORY OF CROSS AND SWORD, "THE SON OF THE SWORDMAKER" BY OPIE READ.

From "The Son of the Swordmaker." Copyright, 1905, by W.H. Lee

A STRIKING story of the life of a Roman soldier and his stirring adventures among the Gauls, the early Britains, the Franks, and in Palestine, including a vivid picture of life among the Druids, a princess of this race, named Vloden, being the heroine. The cold, hopeless philosophy of the Romans and the revivifying faith of the gentle Nazarine permeate the narrative, holding the reader's attention with a peculiar fascination. As the exciting course of events is followed, the blood is made to stir and the heart to beat with a strange quickening, subsiding only to the peaceful influence of the rejected "King of the Jews," so skillfully and delicately depicted by the author. Several historical characters are brought on the scene—Herod, Pilate, Nicodemus, Barabbas, Joseph of Arimathea, and the centurion who placed the crown of thorns on the Saviour's brow.

The secret thoughts and ambitions, the unbiased observations and reflections of a common soldier of Caesar's legions, stated with the blunt honesty of a disinterested witness, throws a new light upon the sacred story of the Cross, depicting from the standpoint of a soldier of Rome,

The result of the queries of three generations of readers and correspondents is crystallized in this book. It is indispensable to every family and business man. It deals with matters of interest to everybody. The book contains 50,000 facts, and is much more complete and more exhaustive than anything of the kind which has ever been attempted. It is a book of everyday reference, more useful than an encyclopedia, because you will find what you want in an instant in a more condensed form. Sixty years of experience alone have made it possible for the publishers of the Scientific American to present to the purchasers of this book a remarkable aggregation of information.

AMATEURS

By GEORGE M. HOPKINS

12mo, Cloth, 370 Pages, 326 Engravings. $1.50

This book has achieved an unparalleled success in one week, and a Special Edition of 4,000 copies has been ordered. It is by far the largest and best book on the subject ever offered at such a low price. It tells how to make things the right way—the "only" way—at small expense. It will prove of value to you—much more than you realize. Do things with your hands. If the book could meet you face to face you would be the first to purchase.

EXPERIMENTAL SCIENCE

By GEORGE M. HOPKINS

Revised and Greatly Enlarged
2 Octavo Volumes 1,100 Pages
900 Illustrations Cloth, $5.00

"Experimental Science" is so well known that it is hardly necessary now to give a description of this work. Mr. Hopkins decided that it would be necessary to prepare a new edition of this work in order that the many wonderful discoveries of modern times might be fully described in its pages. Since the last edition was published, wonderful developments in wireless telegraphy, for example, have been made. It was necessary, therefore, that a good deal of new matter should be added to the work in order to make it thoroughly up-to-date.

THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN
CYCLOPEDIA OF RECEIPTS
NOTES AND QUERIESRevised Edition
Edited by ALBERT A. HOPKINS
15,000 Receipts 734 Pages
8vo, Cloth, $5.00

This splendid work contains a careful compilation of the most useful Receipts and Replies given in the Notes and Queries of correspondents as published in the Scientific American during the past fifty years; together with many valuable and important additions. OVER FIFTEEN THOUSAND selected receipts are here collected; nearly every branch of the useful arts being represented. It is by far the most comprehensive volume of the kind ever placed before the public.

MAGICStage Illusions and Scientific Diversions, including Trick Photography
By A. A. HOPKINS568 Pages. 8vo, Cloth, 420 Illustrations, $2.50

This work appeals to old and young alike, and it is one of the most attractive holiday books of the year. Conjuring, large stage illusions, fire-eating, sword-swallowing, ventriloquism, mental magic, ancient magic, automata, curious toys, stage effects, photographic tricks, and the projection of moving photographs are well described and illustrated.

THE PROGRESS OF INVENTION
IN THE
NINETEENTH CENTURYBy EDWARD W. BYRN, A.M.
Large Octavo 480 Pages
300 Illustrations. $3.00

The most important book ever published on invention and discovery. It is as readable as a novel, being written in popular style.

"This is a carefully prepared book by a competent authority, and, while it is written in popular vein, the information given is taken largely from the patent records, and is as reliable, probably, as it would be possible to obtain."—Machinery.

LETTERS TO BEANY

and

THE LOVE-LETTERS OF PLUPPY SHUTE

By Henry A. Shute

Author of "The Real Diary of a Real Boy,"

"Sequil," etc., etc.

THE thousands of readers of Judge Shute's popular books will welcome this delightful addition to the series. The public has stamped its approval on his previous efforts so emphatically as to leave no room for doubt that "Beany," as this latest book is known to the trade, will prove equally popular with "The Diary" and "Sequil."

Advance orders indicate a large demand for "Beany," and dealers are stocking up with the three books in anticipation of an increased call for the "Diary and "Sequil."

These books have been so well advertised that dealers are safe in carrying them in stock. They are sellers.

An order can be made up of all three books if desired.

Retail price of either book, cloth, 50 cents.

The Saloon Problem and Social Reform

By JOHN MARSHALL BARKER, Ph.D.

Professor of Sociology in the School of Theology, Boston University

AMONG the few great social problems that confront the church and society is that of the modern un-American Saloon. In the preparation of "The Saloon Problem and Social Reform" the author states briefly but comprehensively the economic, political, social, and criminal aspects of the saloon problem, and then considers, in a clear and forceful manner, the practical methods of its solution. The book has a permanent value and should find a place in every pastor's library.

Recent and Forthcoming Pilgrim Press Publications

Fiction

St. Abigail of the Pines. By William A. Knight, author of "The Song of our Syrian Guest," "The Love Watch," etc. pp. 167. . . . $1.00

A new story by this talented writer, with a distinct flavor of the sea, strong, vigorous, yet touching. Prof. Peabody of Harvard, who read the story in MSS., says: "I know it is the real thing. The whole story moves with vivacity, lucidity and pathos. In general, the mastery of seamanship surprises and delights me."

Hobby Camp. By Frank H. Sweet, author of "Going into Business," "Rufe and Ruth," etc. pp. 308 . . . $1.00

A story of camp life in the woods, full of interesting incident and instruction in natural history.

A Misunderstood Hero. By Mary Barnes Beal. pp. 333 . . . $1.25

The scene is in the mountains of the south. The characters are strongly drawn and the young hero appeals strongly to the reader's admiration and sympathy.

"Without preaching it holds up ideals of manliness and honor to boys and also suggests to their elders that true understanding and sympathy should be the basis of all relations between them and their children."

—Christian Register.

"An extremely well written, interesting story."

—Cumberland Presbyterian.

"A finely written story of boy life with character delineation of a very high order."—Herald-Presbyter.

"An excellent book for boys—indeed for everybody."

—Zion's Herald.

Religious and Theological

Who Then is This? A study of the personality of Christ. By Rev. Harris G. Hale. pp. 398 . . . $1.25 net

"A strong book. The method is instructive and the style clear and vigorous."—Outlook.

Studies in Conduct. By George T. Smart, D.D. pp. 16575 net

"A vigorous and stimulating inquiry into the practical problems that confront the Christian in our time, showing wide and fruitful study and couched in language of the most perspicuous and refined character."

—Watchman.

The Bible a Missionary Book. By R. F. Horton, D.D. pp. 190 . . . $1.00 net

An attempt to bring the modern way of handling scripture and the missionary cause together. Shows that missionary zeal need not be destroyed by the changes which are taking place in the Church's view of the Bible.

"A reassuring volume."—Heidelberg Teacher.

Sermon Briefs. From MSS. notes of Henry Ward Beecher. Edited by J. R. Howard. pp. 263, with facsimile MSS. $1.00 net

This is an exceedingly suggestive work for ministers, revealing as it does the methods of sermon building and thought development employed by one of the greatest American preachers.

Educational Evangelism: The Religious Discipline of Youth. By Rev. Charles E. McKinley. pp. 265. $1.25 net

A timely and suggestive book for parents, pastors and teachers.

The Opportunity of Congregationalism. By Washington Gladden, D.D. A stirring address to men of to-day. pp. 67. 10 cts. net, $1.00 per dozen postpaid, $5.00 per 100 by express.

Monday Club Sermons on the International Sunday-school Lessons. Annual volume for 1906. By leading Congregational preachers . . . $1.25

New Editions

The Song of our Syrian Guest. By W. A. Knight. This beautiful and original interpretation of the "Shepherd Psalm" has proved to be one of the most popular books of its kind issued in recent years. In addition to the 50-cent edition in ornamental cloth binding we now have it with same print and illustrations in plain cloth at 35 cents, white leatherette at 25 cents net, in addition to pamphlet forms without illustrations, at 5 and 10 cents each.

Home Classes and the Home Department in the Sunday-School. By M. C. Hazard, Ph.D. .50 net; paper edition, .25 net.

This little book gives the best account of the origin, purpose, growth and value of this remarkable Sunday-school movement. Revised, corrected in some important points and brought down to date.

THE AMERICAN CATALOGUE 1900-1905

Second or Supplementary Volume

▷ The first volume of the new "American Catalogue, 1900-1905" appeared in June last. The second, or supplementary volume, which we announced would be published if a sufficient number of subscriptions were received, will be ready for delivery early in November.

▷ This supplementary volume contains the full title entries, with frequent annotations, given in the "Weekly Record" of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY cumulated into an alphabet for each year, that is, in five alphabets, from January 1, 1900, to January 1, 1905. It is planned to answer the demands of librarians, book dealers and others who wish to have this full bibliographic material in available shape.

▷ For the book dealer the second volume is a permanent record of book evaluations. It gives in form for ready reference brief descriptive notices of the important books published during the period mentioned, describing concisely the contents of each work and explaining many titles which, in themselves, mean little or nothing or are misleading. For descriptive cataloguing, a bibliographical work of this kind is almost priceless.

▷ To the librarian it is no less valuable as a definite help to classification. It will be especially useful as a time saver to readers in search of exact information, and, with the first volume, it gives the best needed information about books next to the actual reading of the books themselves.

▷ The edition is limited, the type having been already destroyed, and as three-fourths of the number of copies have already been subscribed, we suggest a prompt order if you wish to complete your file of the "American Catalogue."

▷ Subscribers to the first volume are entitled to receive the second volume at $6 per copy, the regular price being $7.50, or $12 for both.

Football for Player and Spectator

By FIELDING H. YOST

The game of football in recent years has come to be the most popular American sport. As yet there has been no book published which treats this subject at all adequately from either the technical or popular side. Coach Yost's book will meet a well defined need and is destined to gain immediate favor. The time is ripe for a work of this kind and Mr. Yost's name as author insures success. He is universally recognized as the leading football authority and the most successful instructor.

Over one hundred illustrations, sixty full page, all taken from actual plays. Special diagrams showing exactly how to execute one hundred different plays.

July 14th, 1905.

Doubleday, Page & Co.,
Gentlemen:

Would say in answer to yours of the 12th, we have sold "Freckles" and are continuing to sell it, because it is a book worth selling; is worth the money as a story, and the workmanship
on the book is all right, true to Nature, and the spirit of the woods breathes through every page. It is invigorating and you feel the better for having read it.

Yours truly,

(Signed) John L. Grant.

Please send us 250 of "Freckles" circulars.

William T. Smith and Co. have had since Spring 275 copies of Freckles.

Sibley, Lindsay and Curr, of Rochester, N. Y., have had since Spring 250 copies of Freckles.

A single customer of A. C. McClurg and Company has had within two months 225 copies of Freckles.
